Record budget adopted

By BILL WINTER
Editor

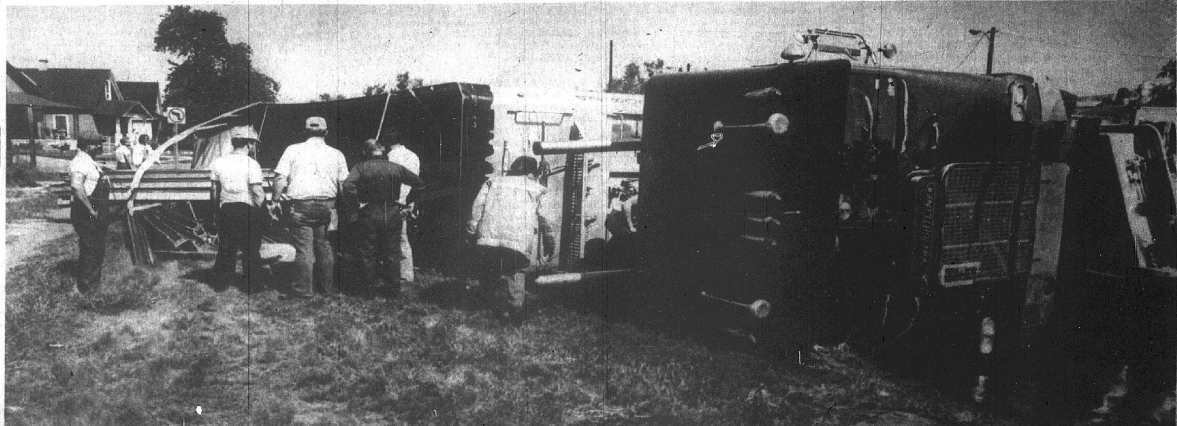

Local governmental financial appropriation documents attained a new high Tuesday night when the Granite City Board of Education adopted a July 1979-June 1980 budget of $25,197,547.

The school district budgeted $24,580,244 a year ago. A tentative new figure of $23,886,304 was set in August, before agreement was reached on teachers' pay and benefits.

Estimates were included for the wages of secretaries, custodians and cafeteria employees, none of whom has yet reached a 1979-80 agreement with Community Unit School District Nine. Negotiations are resuming today with Service Employees Local 98.

Despite the big budget, the tax rate on each $100 assessment is likely to drop by 40 or 42 cents (despite the shrunken property tax base, affected by loss of corporate personal taxes), Superintendent Bob J. Davis said.

Tuesday at noon. A tractor-trailer driven by Virgil D. Engels, 42, Granger, Utah, ended with the combination truck on its right side and its load strewn on the ground nearby after it had ripped through the metal top of the trailer. A right rear tire blew out as the driver was negotiating the left turn from Edwardsville Road onto McCambridge Avenue, causing the vehicle to turn over onto its side. The truck, owned by Al Mardin Jr. of Belts, Tenn., was loaded with aluminum beams which destroyed the top of the trailer when the weight shifted. Several tow trucks were used to unload the beams to allow the tractor-trailer to be uprighted. Neither the driver nor anyone else was injured.

Efforts continue to topple food sales tax

Governor James R. Thompson at a news conference Tuesday backed away from his stand against any sales tax cut this year. But his compromise idea may not be enough to prevent the legislature from overriding his veto of phased elimination of the food and drug sales tax.

The governor called a special General Assembly session for Oct. 3, the same day legislators are scheduled to return to act on all pending veto documents.

At the special session, he will propose a 20 percent cut in the state sales tax on food and drug purchases. This would decrease the overall sales tax on those items from five cents to four cents a dollar.

What the Republican governor is fighting is the Democratic controlled legislature's bill that would end such taxation over a period of four years. Despite his "a fifth of a loaf is better than none" plea, Assembly leaders and some statewide officials indicate they will continue their drive to override the veto.

Aware that the override attempt was gaining momentum, the governor unexpectedly called for a 20 percent reduction rather than 100 percent, again warning that schools and other governmental services could be harmed. Chicago Mayor Jane Byrne endorsed the one-cent proposal Tuesday but was one of only a few to do so.

Some suburban area legislators concerned over rising taxes for transit services have been pushing hard for a veto override. They called the 20 percent plan, "a face-saving political maneuver."

Thompson told newsmen he is convinced the override could be defeated, but that he wants lawmakers to first consider a "fiscally safe and sane" alternative which would provide substantial tax relief.

He added, "If I am wrong and the override succeeds, Illinois without question will be plunged into bankruptcy in the latter years of the program, or we'll have to make such deep cuts in programs like school aid that local property taxes will surely rise."

He estimated a one-cent cut would save $46 annually for a family that spends $100 weekly on groceries. He said it would cost the state $102 million in the first full fiscal year and a total of $519 million by 1983, compared to legislators' $1.6 billion reduction over four years.

Along with the 20 percent cut, Thompson said, he will support further sales tax slashes in the future, depending on whether "economic priorities warrant other priorities."

Defending his initial veto rather than amendatorily vetoing 80 percent, the governor said, "When it was presented to me, it was presented in the context of all-or-nothing. I'm not sure the governor should be in the position of essentially writing tax legislation."

"I'm not changing my position. I called total removal of the tax a cruel hoax on Illinoisans. But I always said we could afford the first cent of the reduction."

"I don't have to act on every bill in the same manner," he said in acknowledging that he had used an amendatory veto on the bill replacing the corporate personal property tax.

He termed his newest plan a compromise but said he had not conferred with override leaders. He said later this week he has been getting a favorable response.

State Senator Richard M. Daley, a son of the late Chicago mayor, has been leading the override effort and accused the governor Tuesday of trying to cloud the issue. House Speaker William Redmond, a longtime Thompson critic, said the 20 percent idea is "too little and too late."

Schermer named to college's board

By MICK STRANGE
of the Press-Record

Avery Schermer, 2600 Edison Ave., was appointed Tuesday evening as a member of the board of trustees of Belleville Area College (BAC).

The appointment was announced by Robert Dintelmann, president of the board.

Schermer will serve until an April election. He is filling the unexpired term of Robert Harris of Granite City who resigned.

Schermer will take the oath of office Tuesday at a special meeting of the board beginning at 8 p.m. in the administration building of the college at Belleville.

"Although Tuesday was my first visit to the BAC board and I was there unofficially, several things impressed me," Schermer said.

"I was very impressed with the quality of the board members. They are very sincere people with excellent credentials. I was also very pleased to

Substitute work for 5 unhired teachers

A "super substitute" list was a key to the development of an agreement between Granite City schools and teachers, wording adopted Tuesday night shows.

While approving a settlement ratified by teachers Sept. 13, the School Board Tuesday also endorsed a memorandum creating a special substitute list for honorably dismissed tenured teachers.

With Betty Harmon and Ann Peters hired Tuesday night as elementary teachers, due to overcrowding at the Logan, Johnson, Nameoki and Maryville schools, five dismissed tenured teachers remain unhired and will be accorded priority in being hired as substitute instructors.

Those dismissed March 20 and not subsequently resigned or re-employed will be offered a daily substitute teaching job when available and as qualified. The action will not constitute a precedent for settling future issues related to faculty size, however.

Last year, bachelor degree teachers received $9,700 and board-paid pension of $100, up to $18,300 and $1,250 in the 13th or later year and with a master degree and a total of 180 college credit hours.

The 1979-80 pay schedule is $10,700 and $749 pension up to $20,630 and $1,444 in the 14th or later year. For 1980-81, the range is from $11,770 and $823 up to $22,685 and $1,588.

Of an estimated 622 present teachers, 354 are in the 14th year or more of service.

Initial negotiations are to start by April 30, 1981, instead of the previous Feb. 28 timing.

The board has agreed not to decrease or diminish rights provided in the agreement, or increase the duties or obligations of any employee; on changes, there is to be consultation.

A contribution checkoff is to be made for the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education. For classroom substitution, there is to be payment of $5 for 20 to 35 minutes and $10 for 36 to 60 minutes, compared to $4.25 and $8.50.

Lighting cheered

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

A $50,000 bill to aid in financing field lighting for the soccer and baseball complex on Fehling Road near Granite City High School South was approved quickly and without objection by the Granite City Council, seated as the town board, Tuesday night.

The bill was included among routine bills for township expenditures which were approved by the aldermen without discussion as the town board meeting opened.

Only after the brief town board meeting ended moments later did it become apparent to many that the actions taken at the meeting were more than routine. About 40 persons in the audience applauded and some carried signs thanking the Town Board for aiding in the field lighting effort. One sign said, "Thank you Granite City."

Linda Welty, Glen Rabon, Melody Hand with the best home product award, Tim Passig, Adviser Paul Wuebels, Sandy Hill (foreground), Adviser Dick Smith, Mike Rotes (foreground) and Adviser Jerry Magurny and Irv Siegel.

Achievers recruited

Another Junior Achievement season will start on Oct. 8, and recruiting is well under way. Each fall, motivated high school students are recruited to organize and manage mini-corporations.

Quality products are manufactured in the JA Center on Wabash Avenue and sold at a profit until the company is liquidated in March. Over 300 such corporations, sponsored by local industry, are formed in the Mississippi Valley region alone.

Purpose of the program is to provide a business-oriented laboratory for future leaders to learn the free enterprise system.

Local participation in JA has become a matter of much pride. Yearly, Quad City Achievers and their companies earn numerous district awards for management, production and performance excellence.

Prizes, scholarships, and trophies are presented at a season-ending banquet in April, usually held at Stouffer's Riverfront Inn.

Arrest man on forgery charge

Charlie D. Spink, 21, of Cottage Hills, formerly of Granite City, was arrested Monday at a residence in the 1700 block of Cleveland Boulevard.

He was charged with forgery in an informational document issued by the Madison County state's attorney's office.

The charge involved an incident Aug. 14, in which it is alleged an effort was made to cash a stolen check at the Kroger store.

Spink was initially taken into custody by an officer in a parking area after he allegedly ran from the store when the manager, Dan Vogt, started questioning him.

The check was issued to an individual by Consumer Money Order Corp. of St. Louis for $235.75.

JUVENILE ARRESTED

A 15-year old youth from Eagle Park was charged with theft during the weekend of 18-inch railroad tracks weighing 100 pounds from the Purdy Company on Washington Street, Venice. The youth was released to his parents pending action by juvenile authorities.

Hope to cut red tape on major construction

In an effort to benefit industry by cutting "red tape," the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency is developing procedures for a coordinated permit review.

The new procedures are intended to provide an opportunity for coordinated environmental review of major new construction projects.

"The IEPA is holding two public information meetings to discuss and receive comment on the proposed procedures—today in the auditorium of the Illinois Department of Transportation, Springfield, and tomorrow in the auditorium of the DuPage County Building Complex, Wheaton. Both meetings commence at 1:30 p.m."

The IEPA proposes to establish a permit review group whose objective is to provide a comprehensive review of all aspects of a permit application.

Members of the Illinois industrial activities, including coal operations, require different IEPA pollution control permits during various stages of construction and operation.

Implementation of a coordinated permit review group would help assure Illinois industry a high agency priority in future applications. The group would resolve conflicts between different divisional pollution control programs and criteria.

It is estimated that the IEPA issues 5,000 pollution control permits annually, of which less than 200 are for construction of major new facilities.

"With complex permit review procedures, implementation of this new function would provide environmentally sound decisions, reduce delays to a minimum, and channel communications between Illinois industry and the agency through one person, potentially saving time and money," a spokesman said.

Copies of the proposed procedures were published in the Aug. 24 issue of the Illinois Register and may be obtained by writing: Editor, Index Department, Rules Division, 490 Centennial Building, Springfield, Ill.

Following written comments on the procedures from industry and the public, the agency will prepare a final version, anticipated to be effective in mid-October.

Aerosol safety

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK
Madison County Extension Adviser, Home Economics

Aerosol cans pose a fourfold danger, says Ordie Hogsett, University of Illinois Extension safety specialist.

If misused, they can explode, ignite or cause health problems and chemical burns.

Never throw an aerosol can into a fire or store it near a radiator or in the sun because an explosion may result, Hogsett says.

Also, don't puncture an aerosol can, even if you think it's empty, because that, too, can cause an explosion.

Some products claim to be safe mechanisms for puncturing aerosol cans, but the Consumer Product Safety Commission says "the procedures for using them are rather complicated and can be dangerous if not carefully followed."

Some propellants, such as propane, are highly flammable and some burn like a blowtorch, if ignited. Use aerosols in ventilated rooms because propellants such as vinyl chloride can be toxic.

People who have inhaled large quantities of aerosol sprays have suffered dizziness, lack of coordination, nausea, headaches or blurred vision. Some have died.

Aerosols also have been known to cause heart, skin and respiratory problems. They even have been linked to cancer.

Children who misdirect aerosol sprays are the most common victims of the fourth danger—chemical burns.

Hogsett encourages aerosol users to follow these tips:

—Read instructions and warnings on the can carefully before using aerosols.

—Avoid skin exposure to sprays and wash thoroughly after spraying, especially with insecticides.

—At the first sign of dizziness, nausea, headaches or other problems, contact a physician.

—Don't use aerosols around food or you may have spray on your food.

—Store aerosols in a cool area because some cans may explode at 120 degrees Fahrenheit or higher.

—Don't store aerosols in a car where temperatures can reach high levels.

—Keep sprays out of the reach of children.

—Teach your children about aerosol dangers.

NUCLEAR SAFETY PLANS DEVELOPED
Erie Jones, director of the Illinois Emergency Services and Disaster Agency, says formation of the Illinois Plan for Radiological Accidents is on schedule, and a preliminary copy will be submitted by Dec. 1 to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission for approval.

The plan outlines "standard operating procedures" in responding to nuclear accidents. "The major thrust at this time is toward development of local plans," Jones said.

THEFT FROM LOCKER
Alvin Moore, 123 Garesche Homes, Madison, a patient at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, alleged that when he returned to room 440 last week $80 was missing from his pants pocket. The pants were left hanging in the locker in the hospital room.

Transit fund proposal

State funds being sought by Southern Illinois University for Fiscal Year 1981, beginning July 1, 1980, include $70,000 to begin developing a mass transit plan to serve the SIU at Edwardsville campus.

Operating budget increases totaling $19.5 million that are being requested for the SIU System include salary and price increases, expanded and improved programs, and other special funding requirements. Among the items is $41,000 in additional operating and maintenance funds for the Broadway Hotel, which houses the SIUE East St. Louis Center.

The proposals were approved here Thursday by the SIU Board of Trustees as part of the Resource Allocation and Management Program (RAMP), the document required by the Illinois Board of Higher Education for communicating the university's planning decisions and resource requirements for the next fiscal year.

University officers expressed special concerns about energy and related problems when RAMP guidelines for FY 1981 were adopted at the June meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Thursday's action formalizes the university's request for funding to begin development of a system to meet transportation needs at SIUE.

In regard to additional operating funds requested for the East St. Louis Center, the RAMP document explains that the building is now owned by the university and is undergoing modernization and rehabilitation in relation to programmatic requirements.

The university expects to occupy an additional 15,000 square feet of new space on the fourth floor of the building by July 1.

By units, the operating budget requests, excluding retirement contributions, are:

SIU at Carbondale, $87,605,800, an increase of $1,314,200; SIUC School of Medicine, $19,985,400, an increase of $2,449,800; SIU at Edwardsville, $41,490,900, an increase of $5,145,000; SIUE School of Dental Medicine, $4,190,300, an increase of $512,200; Office of the Chancellor, $946,900, an increase of $65,900; and SIUE total, $154,19,300, up $19,513,100.

Salary increases requested are 11 percent for all employees, and price increases requested include 22 percent for fuel and utility items, 15 percent for library materials, 7.5 percent for fire protection, and 8 percent for general items.

Other special items being requested include: repairs and maintenance, $110,000 at SIUE; equipment replacement and repair, $475,000 at SIUC and $100,000 at SIUE; support costs for academic programs, $400,000 at SIUC; in-hospital lease space, $400,000 at the SIUC School of Medicine; Waste Treatment Plant at SIUE, $45,000; and Civil Service career development at SIUE, $50,000.

Requested increases for new programs are $153,000 at SIUC and $25,000 at SIUE.

For expanded programs, the requested increases are: SIUC, $800,700; School of Medicine, $236,800; SIUE, $507,800; and School of Dental Medicine, $125,000.

Girl Scout bicycle rodeo and picnic; awards given

A "Bike Rodeo" and picnic for Girl Scouts of Neighborhood 1 took place during the weekend on the grounds of Niedringhaus School.

Each girl participated in a series of tests to demonstrate her ability to control her bicycle while turning, steering and stopping the vehicle.

After the testing segment was completed, the leaders tallied score cards and a picnic lunch was enjoyed. Ribbons were presented to the Girl Scouts and Brownies who scored the highest number of points in each troop.

A bicycle ride around Wilson Park concluded the afternoon event. Recipients of ribbons, with the troop and first, second and third place finishers listed in sequence, are: Brownie Troop 802—Kathy Grimes, Jennifer Jerrell and Teresa Toyoda.

Brownie Troop 889—Amy Hoffstat, Deanna Dolosic and Amy Heiman. Junior Troop 275—Jennifer McNeilly, Dawn Justice and Loretta Cox. Junior Troop 891—Dawn Bowers, Carolyn Alexander and Lisa Nesbit. Cadette Troop 776—Bridget Kittle, Elizabeth Bodnam and Elecia Bush. Also participating were: Kerin Dippel, Mary Griffith, Heather Harper, DeAnna Kopsky, Danielle Rogers, Lyndie Jerrell, Mrs.

REGISTRATION OF AID RECIPIENTS

Gov. James Thompson has signed, with recommendations for change, Senate Bill 176 to develop a "workfare" program administered at the local government level. The bill does not require public assistance recipients to work as a condition of receiving funds, but does require them to register and be available for work, without compensation, if asked by the local government. Thompson said the changes he recommended will make the legislation work effectively and will eliminate several time-consuming reports required of local governments under the original bill.

ANNUAL MEETING ON NATURAL RESOURCES
The annual conference of the Illinois Institute of Natural Resources is scheduled for Oct. 2 in Champaign. Planned topics include reports on hazardous wastes and natural resources in Illinois, and a research project on the Kankakee River. Registration information is available from David Jones at 312-793-3870.

Chrysler sales up

Chrysler Corporation says sales of cars and trucks carrying rebates helped boost August deliveries by dealers in the St. Louis zone 16 percent over July.

Walter M. Jajuga, zone manager, reported sales of 2,642 cars and 769 trucks in August, compared to 2,280 cars and 682 trucks.

The company's Car Clearance Carnival II, which opened Aug. 18, offers purchasers of Chrysler Corp. cars and trucks a $400 rebate. The rebate applies to all company-built cars and trucks except the subcompact Dodge Omni and Plymouth Horizon models and imports.

Dealers in the zone, which covers eastern Missouri, southern Illinois and western Kentucky, had more floor traffic and made more sales in two weeks than in any two-week periods in the last four years.

Leading the increase was the Chrysler Cordoba, up 100 percent over July. It was followed by Dodge St. Regis, up 95.3 percent; Chrysler LeBaron, up 92.3 percent; the standard size Chrysler, up 75.3 percent; and Dodge Diplomat, up 47.9 percent.

Multiple arrests in disturbances

William T. Holt, 19, of 1537 Second St., Madison, was taken to Madison County Jail at 6:30 a.m. Tuesday pending posting of $4,000 cash bond.

He was charged with reckless conduct, unlawful use of a weapon, no firearms identification and criminal damage to property following a series of arguments.

Holt allegedly fired six shots into the pickup truck of Charles Kellick, 1629 Second St., Madison, at 6:58 p.m. Saturday.

Jean Kellick, 44, of 1623 Third St., Madison, and Paula Morris, 19, of 1629 Third St. were charged with disorderly conduct and are to appear in court on Oct. 19.

Charles Kellick was released on $50 cash bond on charges of destruction of property after he allegedly kicked in the front door, threw a brick through a window and threw a length of drain pipe through the kitchen window of Jean Kellick's residence at 2:40 p.m. Saturday.

He is to appear in court on Oct. 12.

Council" and was signed for the City High School North Boosters.

Opposition to the township aiding the lighting fund has been expressed repeatedly in recent months by First Ward Alderman Charles Douglas who noted federal revenue sharing funds are being used and contended it is illegal for a governmental body to use board-to aid another taxing body—the Granite City Board of Education.

Douglas has threatened to sue the township if the bill is approved. However, he was among those who voted Tuesday night to approve the township bills, which included the $50,000 revenue sharing appropriation.

Approval of the field lighting for the sports complex did not receive unanimous support from those in the audience at the city council meeting which immediately followed the town board meeting.

Two residents of the area near the sports complex addressed the council complaining about cars parked on lawns, blocking streets and about trash, beer cans and other problems in their yards caused by those attending North-South soccer game.

One resident of Fehling Road near Bradley Avenue asked the council for help in providing off-street parking for the sports complex and sought a stop sign for that intersection to stop reckless driving and danger to children and pedestrians.

He contended the games endanger residents of that area as cars are parked throughout the neighborhood for a three-block radius of the soccer field, making the streets too narrow for fire trucks or emergency vehicles to reach homes.

He also objected to what he said was drinking, riot-rodding, thrown beer bottles and fights following the game and told the council four police cars had to be summoned to the North-South game to break up fights.

Dave Nolan, administrative assistant to Mayor Paul Schuler said the Boosters Club are aware of the parking problem and a study currently is underway to determine the best ways to finance and provide off-street parking for soccer.

Mayor Schuler said he will encourage the Boosters to "expedite the study on a parking lot" and the problems related to the crowds at the games were referred to City Engineer Monroe Brewer and Fourth Ward Alderman Glen Sprankle and Warren Decatur for study.

Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward said he will vote against no-parking ordinances in that area, saying, "These are public streets and the people should be allowed to use them. It is up to the police to ticket or tow illegally parked cars and speeders."

Opposition also was voiced for stop signs on Fehling Road at Bradley Avenue as some aldermen contended it would impede the flow of traffic.

Schermer named impressed by the letter from state auditors President Dintelmann read, which had high praise for the administration of BAC and its proper keeping of records.

"The records are all computerized and they have numerous programs on their computers. The students at BAC learn computer operations on the latest equipment," Schermer said.

When asked if he plans to run for the post next spring, Schermer replied, "I presume so, if I do a good job. I will be slated to run with the other three board members whose terms expire in April."

President of Schermer Brother's Supermarkets, with stores in Madison and Pontoon Beach, the new board member is currently active in many civic affairs.

He is on the board of the Madison County Urban League, OATH (Organization for the Advancement of the Handicapped), Tri-Cities Area

Chamber of Commerce and a director of Aynad Temple Shrine Oriental band.

Schermer was born in Madison, graduated from the Madison public schools and St. Louis University.

He started teaching at St. Louis University in 1949 and worked for the U.S. Government Office of Economic Stabilization as an Economist from 1949 until 1952.

He returned to the family business in 1952 where he has remained.

Schermer is a member of the Madison Lions Club and originated the club Pancake Brunch which has been held regularly for the past 23 years.

He was president of the Arlington Golf club for 19 years, being one of the club founders.

Schermer has also served as treasurer of the Tri-City Regional Port Authority and formerly was a member of the board of trustees of McKendree College.

Record budget

Director of Business Affairs Tully A. Heubner told the board.

Action is planned in the late fall on new tax levies, which are expected to total $6,375,500, with another $2,860,208 coming from the corporate income tax hike that is replacing businesses' personal property tax.

The 1978 tax levy (1979 collection) was $9,429,875, of which $9,344,521 was extended.

New information on the replacement tax indicates 23 percent of it may be received prior to next June 30, a somewhat earlier date than was usual for the corporate personal property tax. However, the replacement issue is still being tested in the courts.

Initial receipts must be earmarked for construction bonds, which have just been fully retired by the Granite City district and then for the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund (IMRF).

A new budget element inserted Tuesday night provides for tort (civil lawsuit) immunity funds. They will be part of the education fund.

The final 1979-80 budget of $25,197,547 ($24,590,244 actual 1978-79 levy) consists of: another $20,926,942 ($20,690,904), operations, building and maintenance $1,684,130 ($1,266,800), transportation $1,017,100 ($930,540), bonds and interest $919,375 ($1,082,000) and IMRF $650,000 ($610,000).

Although up $1,311,243 from the August 1979 tentative projection, the new budget is up a lesser amount, $617,303, when compared to the year-ago budget. Salaries have been substantially raised, but the staff size has been reduced and three grade schools were closed following completion of the spring 1979 classes.

School officials compare the $617,303 budget rise with an increase of $1,086,590 in 1978-79 and a hike of $645,713 in 1977-78.

Likely levies and replacement taxes of $6,375,500 and $2,860,208 consist of the following: education $4,845,000 and $2,212,408, operations, building and maintenance $712,500 and $282,200, transportation $228,000 and $90,000, IMRF $650,000 and $200,000, bonds and interest, none and none, life safety fund $95,000 and $37,800, working cash fund also $95,000 and $37,800, and tort immunity $200,000 and none.

Compared to the estimated rate of $3.72 a year ago and the actual figure of $3.78, the new aggregate Granite City school tax rate is probably going to be $3.3554, assuming an assessment base of $190 million.

The $3.3554 would consist of $2.55 for education, 37.5 cents for the building fund, 12 cents for transportation, and five cents each for life safety and working cash, all the same as a year ago; 10.52 cents for IMRF, down 15.28 cents; 10.52 for tort immunity, up 10.52; and none for bonds and interest, down 37.2 cents.

Assistant city inspector's pay may exceed his boss's

Assistant Granite City Superintendent of Streets Jim Stack will become one of two assistant city inspectors at a salary exceeding that of the city inspector, if the city council approves ordinances requested at Tuesday night's council meeting.

A split among the aldermen on the issue was evident as they voted 8 to 5 for preparation of documents altering Stack's duties.

Since Superintendent of Streets Lionel Portell has refused to recognize Stack as his assistant, due to political differences, the council has been studying a different job classification for Stack, who currently earns $18,631 per year.

The city's sanitation committee chairman, Alderman Sam Whitmer, said he conducted a telephone poll of the committee members and agreement was reached that Stack has been working in the inspection department since Portell rejected him and he should remain in that department, under City Inspector Emerald Dawes.

The committee's recommendation was that the 1978 city ordinance creating the jobs of city inspector and one assistant be amended to include two assistant city inspectors. The ordinance which provided for an assistant superintendent of streets then should be repealed, the committee recommended.

Whitmer made a motion asking City Attorney Lance Callis to prepare the necessary ordinances and bring them to the council at the next meeting. The motion passed on a divided vote with Aldermen Roy Poulos, Warren Decatur, Paul Ray Bowler, Paul Fisk and Mike Modrusic voting no. Alderman Lloyd Bailey was absent and the other eight aldermen voted in favor of the motion.

Poulos said he did not feel an assistant city inspector should make more money than the city inspector and Mayor Paul Schuler responded, "That goes on all over the city. The city engineer makes more than the mayor. Many policemen make more than Chief Veizer. Many firemen make more than Chief Parente. Foremen on the street department make more than Street Superintendent Lionel Portell. That argument does not hold water."

Alderman Bowler, chairman of the finance committee, said the salary imbalance will exist until May 1 when the city's new budget takes effect. Between now and then, the aldermen will have to decide what the appropriate salaries should be.

It was reported that Stack currently earns $18,631 per year while Inspector Dawes makes $17,854. Assistant City Inspector Pete Farrow earns $16,020 per year.

City Clerk Robert "Bob" Stevens commented after the meeting that the council is expected to either cut Stack's salary to that of the other assistant city inspector or to increase the salaries of Farrow and Dawes in line with what Stack earns.

4-hour social service hearing for this region

The State of Illinois Title XX Citizens' Advisory Council has completed preparations for a public hearing on social service programs Tuesday, Sept. 25.

The United Way of the Tri-Cities Area is the host for the hearing. Area residents are being encouraged to attend the session at the Edwardsville Holiday Inn at I-270 and Route 157 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Title XX provides federal funds to aid states in the operation of social service programs such as day care, homemaker services, counseling and transportation.

During the current program year of July 1, 1979, to June 30, 1980, $271 million will be allocated for 33 different categories of services provided to Illinois residents.

Public input from this hearing will be used in the development of July 1980-June 1981 budgets and the Comprehensive Annual Services Plan (CASP).

Among issues scheduled for discussion at the hearing are Title XX needs assessment, program evaluation and impact, and resource allocation. The discussion will not, however, be limited to these issues.

Persons wishing to testify may register at the entrance to the hearing room. Registration for the hearing begins at 10:30 a.m. next Tuesday.

For the auditions, singers should prepare two selections, one in either French, German or Italian, and another in English. The singers must also provide their own accompanists. The opera requires three singers — a soprano, a baritone and a bass. Musical rehearsals will begin Oct. 1 and the opera will be performed Nov. 29-30 in the Communications Building theater. Singers do not have to be enrolled at the university to audition.

Decision on home mortgage bonds expected by tomorrow

Granite City officials should know by tomorrow whether the Aetna investment group will purchase $10 million in low-interest home mortgage bonds from the city, Mayor Paul Schuler said yesterday afternoon. Schuler met with Aetna officials and with representatives of Lehman & A.G. Edwards Co. Monday to convince Aetna officials that the city bonds would be a solvent investment.

"If Aetna purchases the bonds, we will not need a Standard & Poor bond rating. Aetna rates its own bond purchases," Schuler said. "They promised us they would let us know by Friday if they will purchase the bonds," he added.

One problem which developed last week was that Town & Country Mortgage Brokers officials withdrew from the program, leaving $800,000 of the bond proceeds unclaimed. First Granite City National Bank agreed to take that amount more for home mortgages, resolving the problem, Schuler said. Aetna officials should be happy with the change, since First Granite City National Bank has an excellent record of avoiding mortgage defaults, Schuler said.

Aetna officials and the city's bonding agents spent about one hour in Granite City Monday, touring the city and talking to local financial people. "I think they were favorably impressed with our city and with how secure an investment mortgages would be here," Schuler said.

Being on the safe side, David Nolan, the mayor's administrative assistant, completed a package of forms required by Standard and Poor and sent it by air express yesterday. A good rating by Standard and Poor of forms required by Standard and Poor would let the city use the low-interest loans on the normal bond market, tax free.

The city was one of the last in the country to take advantage of the tax-free revenue bond opportunity initiated by the U.S. Congress before the status of subsequent bond issues in question.

The tax-free nature of the bonds enables them to be sold at a lower interest rate than conventional revenue bonds which, in turn, enables home loans to be offered at about one percent lower interest than conventional mortgage loans.

If the $10 million in interest-free loans is purchased by Aetna or another firm, about $7 million will be distributed to participating banks and mortgage brokers to be used in making home mortgage loans. The remaining $3 million will be used to pay the costs of the bonding attorneys, underwriters, printing of bonds and other expenses, Schuler explained.

Animal license $3

Registering a dog or cat's rabies inoculations in Madison County will cost 50 percent more after Jan. 1, the Madison County Board decided yesterday.

The county's animal registration fee of $2 per year was raised to $3 by the board to help finance the animal control department. Also in an effort to raise funds and to put more "teeth" into the county's leash law, a minimum fine of $25 for violating the law was enacted. The maximum fine remains at $50, but it was felt a minimum fine was needed because many persons found guilty of violating the leash law have been fined as little as $2 in the past.

At the insistence of District 16 Board Member Morris W. Miles of Chouteau Township, the board voted unanimously to deny a special use permit for the storage of tractor trailers on the Fun 'n Sun Beach Resort property at West Chain of Rocks Road and Thorngate Drive.

Miles told the board that representatives of all seven residents on Thorngate Drive adjacent to the lot appeared at the Aug. 17 public hearing on the request to oppose the storage of truck trailers. They also presented a petition opposing the storage, Miles related.

He also contended that as soon as the zoning board gave its endorsement to the request, the owners began to store trailers on the lot and ignored letters from the zoning board and state's attorney's office ordering that they be removed. Wednesday morning there were 31 trailers on the lot, he stated.

He also said the county zoning ordinance requires that storage areas for trailers be paved, which the lot is not.

The county board then overturned the recommendation of the zoning board of appeals that a permit be granted to Joyce and Lawrence Yust, owners, and Horizons Development, Alvin and Mary Ann Reeves and Jerry Dierberger to store, park and transfer trailers in the B-3 business district of Chouteau Township.

In other business the board passed an ordinance condemning several properties in the special service area where sanitary sewers now are being installed (Chouteau, Nameoki and Venice townships), but with the understanding that Harry Galvo, special attorney for the sewer committee, should first try to come to a settlement with the property owners.

The board agreed to purchase one acre of land in Pontoon Beach along Route 111 for $14,500. The land is to be purchased from the village for constructing sewer billing and maintenance buildings.

The board also agreed that the special sewer committee did not get an official appraisal on the value of the property. Board Member Louis Whitsell of Nameoki Township said the property is $2,000 less than nearby property they had assessed for possible purchase.

He noted 75 percent of the cost of the building is being paid from the Environmental Protection Agency grant under which the sewers are being constructed.

Human Growth Day will be observed here

Saturday, Sept. 22, has been proclaimed Human Growth Day in Granite City by Mayor Paul Schuler.

The proclamation is in conjunction with Human Growth Week, which brings to light the need for more research in the area of growth problems.

Most of the fund raising is done through the Human Growth Foundation, a non-profit national health organization which sponsors research in human growth. Benefits of such events go to help the one million children in the United States with growth problems. Some can be helped with hormones. Others will never reach a functional adult height without further research, authorities say.

Locally, volunteers will be out in various areas of the city on Saturday, seeking contributions. Some are parents of youngsters with serious growth problems.

Further information on the project is being provided by Mrs. Rita Stucker (876-2628) and Mrs. Norma Koesterer (931-2225).

City declares 'war' on starlings

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

If it sounds like a war just broke out in your neighborhood in the near future with the sound of guns firing and squawking birds, it will probably be city employees declaring war on starlings. The birds have descended on the city by the thousands, creating a serious health hazard, Jim Stack of the city's sanitation program told the Granite City Council Tuesday night. Stack suggested the council appropriate money to either kill the starlings or drive them from the city and the council concurred.

Special equipment, costing up to $1,500, is to be purchased from the U.S. Department of the Interior, division of Wildlife and Fisheries, to scare the birds out of the city. The equipment to be used will include propane-fired noise guns and a recording of starling distress calls.

Areas where the birds have descended by the thousands include the 2700 block of Washington Avenue, the 1800 block of Spring Avenue and the 2200 and 2300 blocks of Lynch Avenue, Stack said.

"Last August, we had a problem with starlings in two areas of the city and we cut down trees in some areas to stop the roosting," Stack explained. Now the problem has grown to three large areas and several smaller problem areas and the number of starlings descending on the city seems to be increasing, he added. The birds leave droppings on the lawns and sidewalks, creating a danger to health. Some lung ailments can be directly attributed to such bird droppings, Stack contended. He also said the sidewalks become slippery and one woman already has complained of nearly falling while attempting to walk on the sidewalk through one of the areas where the birds are roosting.

He said efforts last year to frighten the birds did not produce a long-range solution to the problem, so he contacted experts in the field, including the Department of the Interior in Lafayette, Ind.

He said federal officials said the city either could kill the birds or frighten them away. Killing them would require applications of a spray from a helicopter, costing about $5,000 per application, which may or may not be successful, he was told.

To scare the birds away, some cities have purchased noise cannons, cracker shells and a recorded starling distress call, all available only from the Department of the Interior. Federal personnel could be hired to use the items and scare the birds away, Stack said, but he recommended city employees be used for the work.

"We have the personnel in the sanitation department. If approval is given, we would do this three evenings in a row and then we would have the equipment to do it if the problem ever returns," Stack told the council.

Alderman Paul Fisk of the Third Ward said he feels the problem is a serious one and added, "It's a problem the city has to get rid of."

The council instructed Dave Nolan, administrative assistant to Mayor Paul Schuler, to attempt to find the funds in the budget so the necessary equipment can be purchased immediately.

Comparable athletic programs are pledged

Adherence to boy-girl athletic opportunity equality was pledged Tuesday night by the Granite City School Board in one of four policies adopted.

"Community Unit School District 9 will provide athletic programs for boys and girls which shall be comparable, based on the needs and interests of the student athlete, available interscholastic competition with nearby communities, school district financial considerations, and available facilities and qualified coaching personnel," the board voted.

"Every effort shall be taken to assure that these programs comply with (federal) Title IX, as well as the rules, regulations and policies of the Board of Education, Illinois High School Association, and various athletic conference stipulations of which School District 9 schools are affiliated.

"The superintendent of schools or his designee shall be responsible for providing rules and regulations to implement this policy."

The board also resolved to "strive to safeguard the students and their parents from money-raising plans of outside organizations, commercial enterprises, and individuals."

"Charitable and civic organizations may be granted permission to place posters in the buildings advertising their events, and for flyers to be sent home with students, only when approved by the Board of Education."

"All information, advertising, posters, etc., must carry the name of the sponsor. The use of the title, Board of Education, or any school name shall not be used on any materials, notices, or advertising without the specific consent of the board."

Also on Tuesday night, the board called for "the superintendent of schools and/or the director of business affairs to make investments of surplus funds under the direction of the treasurer of this school district and in accordance with state laws."

"Upon the recommendation of the superintendent and approval by the Board of Education, the use of the school buildings and grounds of this district may be granted for such public meetings as may be within the provisions of the school law and within the limitations of use without conflicting with school affairs."

"After approval by the board, scheduling such use of school buildings and grounds shall be made with the respective building principal."

"The board may, at its discretion, charge such rental for use of school buildings and grounds belonging to the district as in its judgment may be reasonable."

"Programs sponsored by persons or groups listed as subversive by the U.S. attorney general's office will not be permitted the use of school facilities," the policy relates.

Counseling for women returning to education

Women Returning to Education is a special counseling program for all students at Belleville Area College, and is of especial interest to mature women who are beginning their education or are returning to college after being out of the educational environment for some time.

On Tuesday, Sept. 25, Helen McIvor will discuss test-taking skills and test anxiety, and on Oct. 2 Kathy Lindholm will speak on choosing a career.

All students from BAC and other area colleges, as well as interested community members, are invited to attend the meetings, which will be held at 1 p.m. in the theater. The campus is located at the intersection of Green Mount Road and Illinois 161 east of Belleville.

MEETING CANCELLED
The Madison Board of Education cancelled a meeting scheduled for last Monday. The main item of business was two student hearing. One of the students moved out of the district and the other scheduled for a hearing was withdrawn from school and placed in an alternative education program by his parents.

CONSTRUCTION DEBRIS litters Westgate Drive in Pontoon Beach after crews installing new sanitary sewers have moved on to the south (seen in background). Residents say the street has been torn up several times for the sewers and may be torn up again in the near future. Also, they contend no one has listened to their pleas that trash and debris in the street be cleaned up before a motorist or a child is injured. The board on a broken piece of culvert in the foreground makes a dangerous jump for children on bicycles, who frequently land in the other trash, residents report.

season were Julie Recklein of Woodstock II (sponsored by A. O. Smith), an Illinois Business Tech scholarship; Barb Veizer of Jap 79 (American Steel Foundries), an Illinois Business Tech scholarship; Mary Beth McGarrahan of B-Q-Smokers (Granite City Steel), $100 Herman Spoehrer award; Bill Polley of Pzaaz Company (Granite City Steel), also a $100 Herman Spoehrer award; and Mike Kupinski of Humdingers (American Steel Foundries), a $500 cash grant from American Steel. Fifteen Granite City JA Companies were organized last year.

Of these, Mississippi Valley JA awards went to B-Q-Smokers (Granite City Steel) for "best in production"; Humdingers (American Steel Foundries) for "most decorative product"; and Frame-It (A. O. Smith) for "best home furnishing product."

Frame-It also was one of only 11 district companies selected to exhibit their unique production techniques at the banquet, attended by thousands. An award was given to Jafco II (Illinois Bell) as best company at the Granite City JA Center.

Granite City's record of excellence was acknowledged by another honor. The local Monday night program (A. O. Smith) was selected as a model operation to be reviewed by national JA officers.

Efforts

In other developments this week, Gov. Thompson signed laws increasing aid to rape victims, improving medical records maintained by dentists, and penalizing landlords who fail to return security deposits to those who have rented from them. He vetoed giving Illinois citizens preference over out-of-state residents in state jobs and allowing schools to observe an "all presidents' day" instead of Lincoln's birthday.

He signed laws providing schools with state help in paying for transportation of children where traffic makes walking hazardous, and barring suits by fall injury victims against people who shovel snow and ice from their sidewalks.

Kids play while mom's away

If Friday mornings are rough, toting the little ones around can make it rougher. The banks are crowded, the traffic murder and the stores jammed. The kids can be spared all of that even if you can't, at the Tri City Area YMCA.

The program is called Mom's Morning Out. It is designed for three to five year olds with mothers in mind. For two and a half hours on Fridays, Mom can take off and go shopping, run errands or whatever—while the folks at the "Y" look after the kids.

It's not just a babysitting service; far from it. The little ones who attend have all sorts of things to do and things to learn.

Christine Stack teaches the class and she sees to it that the youngsters in her charge learn about gym activities, arts and crafts, and other learning exercises. There are also movies for the little ones.

The class cost $6 for YMCA members and $15 for non-members. There is a four week session currently going on. This past Friday was the first day of the new session.

So, if your Friday mornings are hectic, you might want to give your preschoolers a break, and yourself as well, and look into Mom's Morning Out. The kids there now are having a lot of fun.

Kennedy's strength is public belief he could 'turn things around'—Simon

By ROBERT ESTILL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau

Kennedy, D-Mass., declares himself in the presidential sweepstakes. That is made abundantly clear in the assessment of Kennedy's prospects by two Illinois Democrats, Sen. Adlai Stevenson and Cong.

Paul Simon. Both Stevenson and Simon have toyed with the self-aggrandizing notions of challenging Carter for the nomination.

Neither has made—nor is likely to make—any overt moves in that direction. But their comments reflect Mr. Carter's lack of Congressional backing, Sen. Stevenson says bluntly.

"If Kennedy runs, the nomination is his. If he does say he will run, it forecloses the opportunity for all others in the party."

Cong. Simon is less blunt, but his comments may be more meaningful since he has been one of the president's most consistent supporters in Congress.

In 1978, Simon voted the Carter position on 88 percent of 112 votes on issues where the president had taken a stand—a percentage unmatched in either the House or Senate.

Simon now prefigures that the majority of Congressional Democrats in general—and Illinois Democrats in particular—would back Kennedy if he runs.

He is not including himself in that assessment—not yet, anyway.

At this point, I am not ready to make any commitment to anyone until I know who the candidates are going to be," Simon said.

"I would say that if Sen. Kennedy becomes a candidate, he would have the bulk of the Democratic members of the Illinois delegation supporting him."

"My guess is that the bulk of Democrats in Congress would not take a position. Of those who take a stand, my guess is that there would be more for Kennedy than for Carter."

When the field is known, Simon said he will announce his preference. In the meantime, Simon said it would not be accurate to portray him as drifting away from Carter.

Simon did drift up to New York to address the "Coalition for a Democratic Alternative." It was his appearance before that anti-Carter group that triggered reporters' questions, which prompted Simon to answer the divisive aspects of a Carter-Kennedy battle, but there were no other candidates—a unlikely prospect at this juncture.

Simon, chairman of the House Budget Committee's task force on inflation, also has become increasingly distressed by the president's handling of domestic economic issues.

"I am continuing generally to support the president's position," said Simon.

"But there are many of us who feel Pres. Carter should be grabbing hold of this inflation thing and the economy more vigorously than he has."

Voters pushing for a solution to inflation may not be as concerned with a candidate's ideology as they are with his perceived ability to turn things around, Simon indicated.

"It is a concern that is felt out there in Metropolis, Ill., where I was on Labor Day," Simon said.

"I talked to people who are really quite conservative in their ideologies but who say we have to nominate Kennedy and not Carter."

Kennedy's liberalism would make him a more likely choice for Simon's support than the more conservative Carter.

Simon headed Sen. George McGovern's Illinois campaign in 1972 and was the national chairman of the unsuccessful effort to draft the late Sen. Hubert Humphrey in 1976.

Simon is concerned about the unsuccessful effort to draft a Carter-Kennedy battle, but thinks it may be inevitable.

"I talked to someone who is very close to the senator," Simon said. "He indicated he thinks Kennedy is holding up a flag to see how many people shoot at it."

"If there is not a lot of slack, then he will be a candidate."

Simon expects that it is 75 percent sure Kennedy will be a candidate.

Kennedy has said his decision will be based on Carter's handling of the economy and the public's perception of "whether things are going to get better."

Simon said he does not see the economy improving enough to strengthen Pres. Carter's hand and keep Kennedy out.

"If Kennedy makes his decision on that basis—and I am not certain that he will—then it is likely he will be a candidate," Simon concluded.

And then the decision will get tough for Simon and his Democratic colleagues.

Time of year to sip cider with the 'apple o your eye'

By CHRIS DOLL

Area Garden Adviser Apple cider is the accepted name for the natural undiluted, unfermented juice of whole, sound, fresh apples. Cider made from fall apples is usually the best in flavor. This is true for both home-made and commercial squeezings.

Cider quality is determined by the maturity and variety of the apple, but the type of press, and the cleanliness thereof can affect the quality. Most presses are acceptable if they are kept clean and free of old fruit residue.

Firm, ripe apples—those that are ripe enough to eat out of hand—make the best cider and give the highest yield. Immature apples give a "green" flavored juice, and overripe apples give little juice and are difficult to squeeze.

Cider at this time of the year should contain 11.5 to 12.5 percent sugar.

Some of the best ciders are blends of varieties. Thus, a combination of tart (Jonathan), low acid (Grimes, Golden Delicious), and aromatic (Delicious, McIntosh) varieties will give a sweet, full flavored cider.

The apples should be sound and clean. Wash or brush to remove dirt and spray residue. Cut out rots before grinding.

Fruit must be ground or grated into a fine pulp. This pulp is then put into a porous sack or cloth to be pressed. Pressing should include as much pressure as possible to squeeze out all the juice.

Home presses should yield 2 to 3 gallons of juice per bushel of apples, whereas commercial growers with hydraulic presses should get 3 to 4 gallons per bushel. The pressed juice should be strained to remove coarse particles and then refrigerated immediately. Some settling of solids will occur while cooling. The juice can then be siphoned off above the settlings for a cleaner product.

The cider can be preserved for 1 to 2 weeks by storing at 32-38 degrees F. Freezing is a good method for long-term storage if 10 to 15 percent air space is left in the container for expansion while freezing. These methods maintain the fresh cider flavor.

Other methods of preservation are chemical treatment, pasteurization, and canning. However, most consumers prefer the fresh and frozen product.

Home gardeners with presses should consider making cider several times during the fall to have the fresh juice. Those without presses could contact their favorite orchardist or market for their supply.

Course on food service sanitation

A 16-hour sanitation course for food service establishments will be offered this fall at SIUE.

The course is designed to train food service employees to meet the Illinois Department of Public Health requirement that, effective Jan. 1, 1980, all for service establishments have a certified supervisor on duty during normal operation hours.

SIUE will offer this eight-week course each Monday evening from Oct. 1 through Nov. 26 (with no class on Nov. 19) from 7 to 9 in the Missouri Room of the University Center. Instructors will be William Crabb, director of University Food Service, and Eleanor Alexander, assistant director.

Registration is $40, which is tax deductible under Treasury Reg. No. 1.62-5, and includes the textbook "Applied Food Service Sanitation." Upon completion of the course, a state exam will be given to determine qualification for certification. Pre-registration is necessary due to limited class size and may be handled by writing the Office of Conferences and Institutes, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, Box 36, Edwardsville, 62026 or by calling 692-2660.

Visits beauty salon for first time at 87

Mrs. Idah Smith of Peoria, formerly of Granite City, returned here for a visit last week and for the first time in her 87 years made a trip to a beauty shop.

"She took it all in stride and seemed to enjoy the new experience," according to Loretta Vessey, owner and operator of Loretta's Hair

Fashions, 1924a State St., where Mrs. Smith had her first shampoo and hair set. Mrs. Smith is the wife of the Rev. Walter Smith, a former pastor at the Community Heights Assembly of God Church here.

The beauty salon's newest patron is a house guest of Mrs. Eileen Bradley, 2907 Warren Ave.

Treatment plant operator named

Terrance McMillan, Champaign, Ill., was appointed by Mayor Paul Schuler Tuesday night as superintendent of Granite City's sewage treatment plant. Council members concurred unanimously in the appointment.

The appointment is to become effective Oct. 2 at a salary of $26,000 per year.

McMillan, who has been employed at the wastewater treatment plant at Champaign-Urbana, will fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Robert Jackson for whom the city has been seeking a successor. McMillan's appointment was recommended to the mayor by the city council's pollution plant committee headed by Fourth Ward Alderman Glen Sprankle. Sprankle said a number of candidates for the job were interviewed before making a recommendation. The committee told the council McMillan has an AI license as well as every other degree and license available for wastewater treatment plant operations.

TWO MEN CHARGED

Gregory Hoes, 19, of 3901 Apt. 1 Gaslight Walk Apartments, Pontoon Beach and Mark Huelsmann, 19, of 2537 Jerden Ave., were released after each posted a $35 cash bond on a charge of disorderly conduct during the weekend. The charges resulted from a family disturbance at the Hoes residence, according to Pontoon Beach police.

A NEW CONCEPT FROM TELL CITY

Why didn't they think of it before? All of us know someone who struggles to get up from a low-seated rocker or chair. Someone too proud to ask for help. Now Tell City has built the help right into this High n' Easy Rocker. Runners are flatter, have a backstop. So it won't rock back as far. Won't tilt forward when you put weight on the arms. You can push going up, brake going down. Seat is higher, too, so you don't go down as far. It's comfortable, too—with a high back to lean your head against. And curved spindles to fit your spine. Just right for less active people who want a rocker that's less active. Buy it for someone you love. Even if that someone is you.

The High n' Easy Rocker
• Professionally engineered for less active people.

Bus ride brochure

The Bi-State Development Agency is offering a free brochure called "How to Ride the Bus." The brochure, which is aimed primarily at new riders or those who use the bus infrequently, is designed to save consumers time and money. Thomas W. Sturgess, director of public information for Bi-State, said the publication was triggered by an increased number of new bus riders, and a massive increase in calls for information. "With gasoline prices and general inflation soaring, consumers need all the information they can give people the basic information they need for a convenient and comfortable bus ride," Sturgess said. Consumers can receive free copies by writing the Bi-State Development Agency, 3869 Park Ave., St. Louis, Mo. 63110.

Tarpoffs host Macedonian party

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Tarpoff, 1609 Clark Ave., entertained about 125 persons at the second annual end of summer garden party at their home last week.

Guests were seated at individual tables arranged on the patio area.

Various traditional Macedonian foods were prepared and brought to the social event by the guests. "Special dishes included pita, banitz, zelink and assorted Old World fruit pastries.

Highlighting the party was the yagne-na-rhesen (lamb prepared on a spit).

A specially designed automatic rotating center shaft, which can be extended to hold 10 individual lambs, was constructed by Craig Tarpoff and used at the party.

The latter supervised the cooking of the yagne-na-rhesen, employing a unique Macedonian recipe which has been in the Tarpoff family for three generations.

Many of the guests participated in circle dances, as practiced in Macedonian villages.

Several older guests described cultural traditions from their Macedonian villages that have been handed down through families for generations. Younger guests of Macedonian ancestry discussed life in this country, comparing it to their elders' former lifestyle.

Each of the 40 charter members of the Sisterhood of Sts. Cyril and Method Eastern Orthodox Church was presented a potted plant by Mrs. Tarpoff.

The preparation of Macedonian foods and traditional handmade articles was reviewed by the women under the leadership of Miss Eleanor Popovsky, Sisterhood president.

The group also heard a lesson presented by Father Daniel Gurovich, rector of Sts. Cyril and Method Eastern Orthodox Church.

A handmade quilt, created in the "granny" design, was donated by Mrs. Catherine Dimitroff for the church building fund and given to Mrs. D. Van Horn.

Members of Sts. Cyril and Method Eastern Orthodox Church will sponsor a Macedonian picnic and dance on Sunday, Sept. 30, it was announced.

The event will take place at the Mexican Honorary Commission Hall, 1801

Mrs. Arthur Buente, program chairman, announced this year's programs will focus upon a study of China.

Miss Frances Lynch started the series by reviewing "River Road to China" by Milton Osborne.

Miss Lynch noted that while the book is comparatively new its topic, concerning the Mekong River Expedition of 1867-73, has been explored in previous works.

In addition to those named, also present at the meeting were Mesdames E. M. Arnovitz, Wayne Carlisle, G. A. Holzschner, Harold Janzen, A. E. Krumsiek, Lawrence McCauley, William Miller, Emil Mueller, Arthur Roman, Ray Schafer, James Stuart and Misses Lily Dod and Hazel Towery.

Shores-Shrum vows heard in candlelight

Pink carnations, white roses and palms adorned the altar at Bethel Free Will Baptist Church in Roxana as Kristi Lea Shrum and David Mark Shores exchanged wedding vows.

The Rev. James Walker performed the double ring afternoon ceremony July 28.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Edward Shrum, 4111 Alton Road. Mr. and Mrs. David Shores of Rindard, Ill., are the parents of the groom.

Musical selections for the ceremony included "One Hand, One Heart," "Because," "The Twelfth of Never" and "The Wedding Prayer." Pianist was Gayle Griffin and soloists were Gwyn Pugh and Vicki Sayler.

Escorted to the altar and presented in marriage by her father, the former Miss Shrum chose a formal length gown of white chiffon.

The Victorian design was fashioned with a blouse bodice, re-embroidered yoke and cuffs, circle skirt and Chapel train.

She wore a Cathedral veil of English silk illusion which was edged with scalloped Chantilly lace.

Her bouquet was of pink roses, white carnations, baby breath and fern.

Matron of honor was Rebecca Pugh. Sarah Malone was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Ray Barks, an aunt of the bride, Becky Johnston, a sister of the groom, and Debbie Smith and Sandy Gipson, cousins of the bride. All were identically attired in formal length gowns of dusty rose tulle. Each carried a long stemmed pink rose with fern and baby breath surrounding it.

Flower girl Emily Barks, a cousin of the bride, wore a white satin gown featuring ruffles trimmed in pink bows. She carried pink roses and white carnations with baby breath and fern.

Randy Shrum, a brother of the bride, was chosen as best man. Groomsman were Mike Price, Rodney Winn, Mike Johnston, a brother-in-law of the groom, Dawayne Spurlin and Terry Pierce, a cousin of the groom.

A rehearsal dinner was held in the church hall. The reception was held at the Rosanna Reception Hall.

The bride is a 1975 graduate of Granite City High School North. She attended Free Will Baptist Bible College in Nashville, Tenn., and is a receptionist and telephone operator at Frisco Engineers. She was formerly a member of the Bronte Literary Society.

Her husband is a 1974 graduate of Cisne High School and a 1979 graduate of Free Will Baptist Bible College, where he was president of the Phi Gamma Chi Literary Society. He obtained a bachelor of science degree in education.

The couple is residing in Rocky Mount, N.C., after a wedding trip to the Lake of the Ozarks.

City to hire Manpower EMTs

The Granite City Council Tuesday night gave its tentative approval to paying the full salaries of 14 emergency medical technicians on the city's ambulance service when the current Manpower funding for those employees ceases.

City Attorney Lance Callis was asked by the council to prepare an ordinance hiring 13 of the EMTs full-time when their Manpower funding terminates Sept. 28, and hiring the 14th EMT when his grant ends in November.

Mayor Paul Schuler noted there is money in the budget earmarked for the increased cost to the city of keeping the EMTs when the Manpower funding stops.

Current Manpower and the city share the $13,284 per year salaries of the EMTs, with Manpower paying $10,000 and the city picking up the balance. The end of the Manpower funding for them means the city will have to pay the full $13,284 for each per year. The city's additional salary cost will amount to $146,000 per year.

If the ordinance hiring the first 13 is approved at the council's next meeting and if all of them pass physical examinations required of all new personnel to the fire department, the city will begin paying full salaries of $10,000 each.

Andreas, David Bell, Jimmie Brawley, Thomas DeVries, Richard Gaines, Matthew Gasparovic, Kevin Kieley, Jon Langenshein, Larry LaMaster, James Monaganan, Courtney Rennaux and Daniel Worthe.

An ordinance also is to be prepared to put Michael Richardson on the city payroll when his Manpower funding expires in November. He was the last EMT assigned to the city ambulance service.

The council also agreed to hire Michael L. Hill as a probationary patrolman for the city's police department effective Oct. 1. He replaced Patrolman Michael Henderson who resigned to move to California. It was noted the hiring of Hill depletes the city's eligibility list for policemen and testing will be required in the near future for new candidates.

Alderman Charles Douglas questioned why one fireman who is being transferred from the Manpower program to the fire department was not accepted for the police department. He said the hiring of Hill depletes the physical examination list for the police pension fund.

Douglas questioned how a candidate can fail an examination for the police department and be taken into the fire department. The question was not answered at the meeting.

Elmer Miller, a fire and police commissioner, later said the Press-Record had the young man who failed the physical examination will have to take the same examination and pass it before he will be accepted on the fire department.

The council concurred in a resolution by Mayor Paul Schuler of George Stottroff to the city's housing rehabilitation board, effective Sept. 18, to replace Todd to the library board from Sept. 18, 1979, to June 30, 1982. The latter appointment is to replace Lucille McCleod, who resigned from the library board after many years of service.

The resignation of William G. Crystal from the library board also was accepted with regrets by the council Tuesday night. He said he has accepted a new post in California. The resignation will be effective Oct. 15.

1980 Jr. Miss is chosen

ANNUAL PAGEANT held in the GCHS South auditorium this week.

by Deanna Orris; and Darcy Lynn Jewell and Diane Barlock model non-formal dresses.

Lower row (left to right) — Laurie Ferrere leads the 13 entrants as they "put on their Sunday clothes"; "Main Event" is portrayed in the talent performance of Loretta Heagy; and new 1980 Granite City Junior Miss Charlene Bennington is shown a few minutes before her coronation as she played a piano solo.

GC to be well represented at municipal league event

The Granite City Council voted Tuesday night to send up to 22 city officials to the Illinois Municipal League convention in Chicago from Sept. 28 to Oct. 1 with each receiving expenses of $450. If all of the officials authorized to go to attend, the cost to the city will be $9,900. Authorized to attend were the mayor, the 14 aldermen, the city attorney, a police commissioner, the superintendent of streets, the city clerk and the city treasurer.

In other business, the council approved a proposal by Edward Parrigan to rehabilitate a home in the 2200 block of Benton Street at a cost of $16,500. The rehabilitation program is self-supporting as the city purchases dilapidated buildings, rehabilitates them and sells them.

The council also agreed with a suggestion by Alderman Roy Poulos of the Third Ward that an amendment be drawn up reducing the time between condemnation of property and razing of the property from the present six months to three months. The amendment will be acted upon at an upcoming council meeting.

A proposal for comprehensive general liability insurance for the city was presented, but City Attorney Lance Callis said he did not believe the plan could be accepted without competitive bidding.

Alderman Paul Ray Bowler of the Seventh Ward said he asked other aldermen if the insurance should be put out for bid and was told the city's "agent of record" seeks prices from several insurance companies and then recommends the best policy for the city.

Bowler questioned whether the city should continue to use an agent of record, if it is necessary to bid for all insurance coverage, anyway.

Bowler, chairman of the finance committee, said he feels the bid submitted for liability insurance is a good one and would be accepted, if bidding had been followed. He noted the city's liability judgments exceeded $89,000 this year and the company is seeking a premium of only $29,000 per year.

The policy and the question whether the bidding procedure used by the agent of record meets the legal requirements of bidding by cities were referred to Callis for study and a recommendation.

Police called to house, arrest two

After police alleged making a third trip to 2308 E. 25th St., at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, in response to complaints of loud music, they arrested the occupant, Steven R. Curless, 20, on a charge of disorderly conduct.

About 15 persons were at the dwelling and were ordered to leave, police said. One youth, Bradley J. Hutchinson, 17, of 2210 Hodges Ave., allegedly refused to comply and was arrested and also charged with disorderly conduct.

Officers said they went to the house at 7:45 p.m. and again at 8:10 p.m. Tuesday, and on both occasions asked the occupants to keep the music down.

Curless was released at 10:20 p.m. after paying a $100 cash bond and Hutchinson was released on payment of the same bond at 11:10 p.m.

Taliana will lead search

Dr. Kenneth A. Shaw, chancellor of the Southern Illinois University system, on Tuesday announced the appointment of Lawrence E. Taliana, professor of psychology at SIU at Edwardsville, to serve as chairman of the SIUE presidential search committee.

The appointment was announced at an open forum with the university community in the University Center, where Dr. Shaw answered questions concerning the structure and guidelines for the committee.

Information on the structure and guidelines had been distributed Monday. The committee will be composed of 11 persons, including Taliana, with the other members to be named by the chairman from recommendations made by various constituency groups.

There will be four representatives of the Faculty Senate, two from the Student Senate, two from the University Staff Advisory Council, one from the Deans' Conference, and one from the Alumni Association.

Prof. Taliana joined the SIU at Carbondale faculty in 1957 as supervisor of the Testing Service after three years at Purdue University, where he was chief counselor at the Counseling and Testing Center. In 1959, he was assigned to the local campus as an assistant professor of psychology.

During the ensuing 20 years, he has been promoted to professor and has held a number of academic and administrative appointments, while contributing to numerous research papers, journals and books on the subject of psychology. He also has served as a consultant to outside agencies. His administrative assignments at SIUE have included two years as assistant to the chancellor in 1969-70 and two years as assistant vice president for planning and development (1970-72).

Taliana has served on boards, councils and commissions at the community, regional and state levels. In addition, he has been chairman of the General Studies Task Force Study Committee at SIUE and a member of other academic planning and study committees and groups.

A native of Mt. Vernon, he has resided in Edwardsville since 1959. He holds bachelor's and master's degrees from SIUC and received his doctor of philosophy degree from Purdue University.

2434 Ohio Ave., who alleged seeing Simpson running in the alley at the rear of her house immediately after a rock was thrown through a rear door window. The rock, found on the kitchen floor, was turned over to police.

River use tax citizen panels

The process by which the Upper Mississippi River Basin Commission (UMRBC) will build direct public involvement into planning for the river system's resources began this month when state and federal representatives selected four citizens to serve with them on the master plan public participation work team.

This action followed the commission's August adoption of the master plan of study (POS), a general work program for developing a plan for management of the upper Mississippi River system. The POS is a joint product of the various state and federal agencies on the commission, and of input solicited from interest groups and citizens.

The commission's commitment to more direct means of citizen participation in planning processes is reaffirmed in the POS, which states the public work team will appoint four citizens to each of three other teams and to the master plan task force.

One member each will represent environmental and recreational objectives and two will represent economic objectives.

Citizens selected are Leonard Peterson, Upper Mississippi Waterway Association, Minneapolis, and E. B. Reede, University of Missouri at St. Louis, both representing economic objectives; Bill Howe, Prairie Du Chien, Wis., representing recreational objectives; and Judy Marquis, Izaak Walton League, Moline, Ill., environmental.

They will help appoint the 16 remaining citizens to the dredged material disposal, resources and transportation, and computerized inventory feasibility work teams, as well as to the task force.

The commission also asked the public participation team to recommend the structure and membership of a citizen advisory council. The council is expected to serve as policy advisor to the master planning process.

Present, Jimmy Carter authorized the UMRBC to prepare the comprehensive plan for managing the upper Mississippi River system when he signed P.L. 95-502 on Oct. 21, 1978. The commission will cooperate with appropriate state, federal and local officials.

In addition to the master plan, the law provides for the replacement of Alton Lock and Dam 26, the imposition of an excise tax on fuel used by commercial cargo vessels on specified inland waterways, and a comprehensive study of inland waterways user taxes and charges.

Before it selects the additional citizens, the public participation work team has asked for more nominations. Interested citizens may submit nominations in writing to the Upper Mississippi River Basin Commission, Room 510 Federal Building, Fort Snelling, Twin Cities, Minn. 55111 on or before Sept. 28.

The team also asked that nominations be accompanied by a brief description of the nominee's qualifications; a preference for appointment to a particular work team, the task force or the citizen advisory council; and a commitment of willingness to serve.

The team is scheduled to make the appointments during its next meeting on Oct. 2 and 3.

SCHOOL BURGLARIZED
Earl McClanahan, principal of Madison Junior High School, reported to police at 8:35 a.m. Monday the school had been burglarized. A window was found broken. Items taken include: three Caliphone tape recorders, one Ball and Howell tape recorder, a small mathputer, a Kodak instamatic camera and one section of drain pipe located between the gym and the main building. School authorities are making a complete check for anything else missing and the value of the missing items.

BOARD COMPLAINT
The Metro-East Sanitary District signed a complaint charging a juvenile with trespassing last week. It was riding a motorcycle north in the drainage ditch behind 3100 block of Jill Avenue. After he was arrested the minor pushed his red motorcycle home and reported to the police station with his father. He was released in his father's custody pending a court appearance.

O'Neal Senate committee formed

Edmund B. Thornton has announced the formation of a 36-member Citizens for O'Neal Committee which will explode a possible race for the United States Senate by Illinois Lieutenant Governor Dave O'Neal.

Members include: Walt Schlemmer of Edwardsville and Madison County Republican Chairman Edward Ragsdale. The purpose of the committee is to develop a preliminary campaign structure and evaluate how effective a campaign might be.

Included on the committee are leaders of the Republican Party from all regions of the state, as well as private individuals. Thornton said, "We have joined this committee because we believe that Dave O'Neal is a strong and decisive leader whose presence in the Senate would benefit Illinois and the nation."

"Lt. Gov. O'Neal is aware of this committee and has indicated that our formation and the activities which we are about to undertake will be crucial to him as he makes his decision on whether or not to run for the Senate in 1980."

"Citizens For O'Neal will be engaged in polling and fund-raising, as well as issue development. We have filed with the federal election commission as an exploratory committee."

Fine choice by college in appointing Avery Schermer

Appointment of Avery Schermer of Granite City to a board vacancy is a good move by Belleville Area College trustees for a number of reasons, among them it will continue the precedent of a Quad-City area resident serving on the seven-member board.

He replaces Robert Harris of Granite City on the board that serves a vast, multi-county region with two-year, community college services.

Avery Schermer has extensive business experience, operating Schermer Brothers supermarkets in Madison and Pontoon Beach, and is president of that company. He served several terms on the board of McKendree College, Lebanon, and was a faculty member from 1948 to 1952 of the School of Commerce and Finance at St. Louis University. A former economist and business analyst for the Office of Price Stabilization, he also has engaged in real estate, golf club, clothing and other business ventures and is the former member of the Tri-City Regional Port District board.

Recipient of many awards, he was named to the board Tuesday night and will attend his first meeting as a board member Sept. 25. We voice congratulations to him, and a hearty commendation to the Belleville Area College board.

Doubt voiced on overall cost of SIU chancellor office

Alton Telegraph—Southern Illinois University never ceases to amaze the public on the basis of its leaders in finding new ways to move money around. By using accrued surpluses, the thrifty board will be able to pay new Chancellor Kenneth Shaw's $65,000 salary and also the $50,294 for a new post of vice chancellor to be occupied by James Brown, who has served as chief of the board staff.

SIUE student body president Mike Stern had the courage to express, "That's a pretty extreme sum of money for two people." He may have said what many more people will think as they learn of the program.

Additional accrued funds will be used to fund the chancellor's office expense increase over the board office which it replaces. We question the procedure of accruing state monies in a surplus account, $160,000 over the $844,000 budgeted last year; $901,500 is budgeted for next year even though Dr. Shaw had pledged in a resolution adopted by the board that the change in governance would not increase costs. Comparison of these amounts and salaries with those of state officials, including the governor, has been interesting previously and is likely to be done again. Use of surplus funds comes at a time when there is a freeze on hiring faculty and when other cutbacks in university operations are being made because of lower enrollments and tightened funding from the legislature.

Carriers leave by 9, but sorting of mail not completed before 10

To the Editor:
I have been gratified to read the recent articles in the Press-Record regarding our postal service. If we see where the public should be better served by a government facility, we should say so. I want to thank you for this.

There is another matter which I believe should get some attention and that is the time that the morning mail is sorted and placed in our post office boxes.

My business, and most businesses, its office operation at 9 a.m. We pick up our mail between 8:45 and 9 at the post office.

It is vital to our business that we review our mail before we start our office operations. Much of the time, only a small portion of the mail has been placed in the boxes at this time.

This compels us to wait another day for the bulk of the mail, or to leave a busy office to return to the post office later in the day to pick up our mail.

We have been informed by the post office that the mail sorting and putting in the boxes is completed between 10 and 10:30 a.m. If we let the carrier deliver our mail, it would reach us between 10:30 and who knows.

However, it is pointed out that the carriers have all their mail for the day's delivery in their bags before 9 a.m. Why couldn't the post office box mail be sorted and in the boxes before 9 for the business of the businesses? JOHN R. SMITH

Downtown walk cleaning dilemma

To the Editor:
For more than two years, our committee has tried to keep clean up downtown Granite City by organizing a sidewalk cleaning project. We have met with failure at every turn, and we would like to appeal to your readers to help.

While most merchants and downtown area businessmen do an admirable job of cleaning their own sidewalks, we are concerned about the empty buildings where nobody picks up litter and trash from the sidewalks.

Although the sidewalks are city property, the city does not clean the sidewalks, and so we tried to organize a group of CETA youths with the cooperation of Coordinated Youth Services to carry on a program of sidewalk cleaning, including snow shoveling in winter. The program did not work out well, because no supervision is available, although CETA or Coordinated Youth. Neither has the funds to pay a supervisor. A subcommittee of ours met with representatives of the Granite City Street Department, as well as the unions whose members work for the Street Department, seeking their cooperation in providing someone to supervise these youngsters and also to help in cleaning trash from the gutters or street.

Our group was told flatly that no union employee would work with the non-union CETA kids — and that the Street Department employees would not allow the kids to touch anything in the gutters or street.

Incidentally, another factor in improving the look of downtown Granite City is the cleanliness of the streets themselves. For some time, the Street Department has done a fine job of sweeping the streets on a regular basis on Tuesday mornings. However, this schedule has been interrupted on occasion because the old street sweeping machine needs replacement, and the City Council has not yet appropriated funds for that purpose.

There's where we stand right now. We need somebody to volunteer to supervise the CETA youngsters who are funded by federal funds for projects like sidewalk cleaning.

The youths need the work and a sense of accomplishment. The city needs clean sidewalks, and our committee needs fresh ideas on how this can be done. We would like to appeal to the merchants and businessmen to pay closer attention to their sidewalks and do their share to keep them clean. But most of all, we would like to get ideas from the public — if anybody can figure out a better way for us to get the job done.

Please call the Chamber of Commerce at 876-6400 or write the Chamber at 1831 Delmar, Granite City. We'll appreciate your help.

Impartial coverage of labor news

To the Editor:
I wish to commend you on your coverage of organized labor in your recent Labor Day edition.

Also, you are to be commended on your fair reporting of the teacher-school board negotiations.

All too often, the bulk of organized labor is branded by the misdeeds of a few within their ranks. A good part of the media, too often, matter of factly report on negotiations as being a contest over labor's demands, and management's proposals. We in organized labor appreciate fair and impartial reporting. Thank you.

Dubish resigns from commission

Ed Ray Dubish, president of the Madison Board of Police Commissioners, announced at the Madison City Council meeting Tuesday evening his resignation, effective Sunday, Sept. 30. In his letter Dubish said, "In the past 19 years or so as commissioner I have seen many changes. All were for the best."

He also had an excellent administration and our policemen can be compared with some of the best in our state."

Dubish was first appointed as a police commissioner by the late Mayor Stephen Maestas and later appointed by Mayor Mike Sasyk. Sasyk and Dubish served as police commissioners on the board at the same time for several years.

Mayor Sasyk said, "Ed has been with us for many years, doing a truly outstanding job. We served on the police board together for many years. I would like to ask the council to go on record commending the fine job Ed Ray has done."

On a motion by Fourth Ward Alderman Christ Costoff and seconded by Fourth Ward Alderman Mike Sikora, the council unanimously concurred with the mayor.

Commissioner Dubish then asked to address the council. "To some of the old pros here, it kind of hurts to see me go, but it is time to do so. Everyone here has been so willing to help. I remember working with you Mike, when you were resident and 'Lefty' (Emmet Pazia) was chief. Enjoyed working with Frank (Dutko) when he was chief and I remember when Donnie (Bridick) joined the force and now the past few years I have enjoyed working with him as chief."

"This is a good town and I love it," Dubish said with a voice filled with emotion. "I wish the city government had not been named."

Remaining on the police commission are Andrew Economy and John Bridick.

'Y' center open house Sunday

The Tri-City Area YMCA will formerly open the remodeled multi-purpose center for senior citizens on Sunday, Sept. 23, from 2 to 4 p.m.

The center will serve as a recreational site for area senior citizens and will feature fitness, aquatic, continuing education and social programs. The YMCA multi-purpose center is available to the entire Quad-City community and will provide "an excellent source of programs to promote a better life."

YMCA Executive Director Paul Grennell comments.

The grand opening will feature an introductory entertainment by the American Association of Retired Persons band, prizes, program demonstrations and refreshments.

"The afternoon activities will be a form of celebration that facilities are becoming more available to older Americans, and that physical programs are a must to better health. Area senior citizens are invited to attend," Grennell concluded.

More natural gas

Illinois Power Company yesterday filed notice with the Illinois Commerce Commission of plans to provide natural gas service to a 477 new residential, commercial and industrial customers.

The 422 of the new permits for service will be for residential customers throughout the 15,000 square miles, served by the company.

The service is being made available to applicants on file as of Sept. 18, except for large industrial customers who have requested gas for uses other than space heating. Those large industrial customers are eligible if their applications were on file as of March 23, 1972.

The release is only the second to the large industrial customers since the priority system was established earlier in the 1970s.

Three factors have made this additional gas service possible, according to Manager of Energy Supply Larry L. Ideman. They are a supply previously offered to but not used by earlier applicants for service; continued conservation by customers; and conversion of some industrial customers to a rate which allows interruption of service when necessary to supply firm-service customers.

Lyman Hickman, 69, dies

Lyman W. Hickman, 69, of Farmington, Mo., formerly of Granite City, died at 10:40 p.m. Tuesday at Farmington Hospital.

Born in Reynolds, Mo. he resided in Granite City for many years. He retired at American Steel Foundries.

He was a member of the Eastern Church of God, Esther, Mo. Among his survivors are his wife, Mrs. Sylvia Hickman; a son, James T. Hickman; one sister, Mrs. Laura Buford and a brother, Claude Hickman, both of Granite City.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Mobile home destroyed

A fire at 3:50 p.m. Monday destroyed the mobile home of Edward Colbert, Lot 142 Village Green, 3801 Lake Drive, Pontoon Beach.

A Long Lake fire department spokesman said firemen believe the fire started near a couch and that no was home at the time.

Damage to the mobile home was estimated in excess of $5,000, with $2,500 estimated damage to the contents.

The mobile home of Harold Siocker, Lot 44, located 10 feet from the Colbert home sustained an estimated $2,000 damage from heat according to the fire department.

Fifteen Long Lake firemen answered the call and were at the scene for about two hours.

Over 800 feet of fire hose had to be put down to reach the fire.

Seek man who is selling stolen items

Granite City police and Madison County sheriff's deputies are searching for a man driving a yellow Volkswagen station wagon who has been attempting to sell stolen items along Route 162.

The man is believed to have stolen a lawn mower and tool box from the pickup truck of Dan Rahn, a teacher at Lake School, when the truck was in the school parking lot during school hours Wednesday.

Rahn discovered the theft and saw a man living along Route 162 mowing his lawn with a mower of the same description.

Rahn and police questioned the man who said he was in a Volkswagen station wagon sold him the mower for $20 and said he also had a washing machine and tool box for sale. The washing machine was on a luggage rack on top of the station wagon, he said. The mower was returned to Rahn.

Police were told that the man selling the items said he planned to return to Arizona and needed money. He drove to Harri's Tackle Box after selling the mower, police were told.

Employees there said a man got out of a station wagon with a washing machine on the top and asked them if they wanted to buy a tool box, power drill or washing machine. They declined and the man used a telephone booth before leaving east on Route 162.

The man was described as nearly 6 feet tall, weighing about 150 pounds, with having short dark hair and damage to his face, possibly from acne.

Auto burglary suspects held

Granite City police were notified by a Venice man and another from Madison yesterday, pending the outcome of an investigation into the burglary of a truck, occurring at 3:50 a.m. Wednesday.

The two were arrested through the alertness of a man and wife and a friend who were standing talking in a driveway in the 2300 block of E. 24th Street when a car drove up.

The trio saw two men get out and walk toward a pickup truck, belonging to Arley Hoffman, 2314 E. 24th. A few seconds later, they reported hearing glass breaking at the side of the truck.

One of the witnesses got into a vehicle and drove across the street into a driveway near the pickup truck, sounding the horn, he told police.

At that point, one of the men ran between some houses and the other jumped into the auto in which they had arrived and drove east along 24th Street.

Moments later, an officer spotted a man on foot in the 1600 block of E. 23rd Street and called out to the man to halt.

The suspect, a Madison resident, 28, ran a couple of steps and then appeared to drop a purse into a trash can before stopping, the officer said. A woman's coin purse was retrieved from the trash can.

Another officer saw a vehicle, matching the description of the car that had left the scene, at 23rd Street and Lee Avenue and halted the driver, a 22-year-old Venice man, at Madison Avenue and 20th Street.

The Madison man was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment of an injury to the right hand.

The other suspect also had an abrasion to the right wrist and scratches on the hand, police said.

An inspection of the pickup truck revealed a vent window had been broken. Apparently nothing was taken from the vehicle, the report said.

350 callbacks at A. O. Smith

A.O. Smith Corp. which laid off a total of 700 production workers during the summer drop in auto production, is now making standard autos has recalled 350 of those workers this week, a plant official confirmed Tuesday.

The callbacks restores the total production work force to a total of approximately 1,450 workers, the spokesman said.

Layoffs that occurred during July and August resulted from shutdowns for model changeovers and as a result of cuts in production caused by a declining market for larger type autos due to the fuel shortage.

No further callbacks are planned immediately, the spokesman said. Further production trends will be determined by how the public accepts the new 1980 models.

A.O. Smith produces auto frames for standard-size Chevrolet cars.

Trucker assaulted with knife and gun

Robert L. Copas, 35, Auburndale, Fla., a truck driver, suffered cuts to his face and nose during a disturbance at the Land of Lincoln Motel on West Chain of Rocks Road at 3 a.m. Tuesday and was released from St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Copas told Madison County sheriff's deputies that two other truck drivers entered his motel room and one carried a yellow revolving light and a CB antenna he said he had stolen from a car in the motel parking lot.

Copas said he told the man to get the stolen items out of his room and the man became angry and started a fight. During the fight, the man displayed a knife, and Copas grabbed a pistol from a table and threatened Copas, it was reported.

Copas said he ran into the bathroom and locked the door, but the man broke down the door, struck him with the pistol and cut him with the knife. There was damage to the bathroom and the door was destroyed, deputies discovered.

When deputies arrived, the other men had left. They went to another room and alleged finding Copas' assault with a pistol on the table beside him. The man was arrested and charged with aggravated battery, but the charge later was dismissed.

The man who allegedly assaulted Copas suffered minor injuries in the scuffle and was treated and released from St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Maryville.

Another payroll, still no money

Trustees of the Metro-East Sanitary District approved another payroll of approximately $22,000 Wednesday, but again are without district funds to write the checks for the employees.

It was the third bi-monthly payroll approved for which no funds are available, or a total of about $65,000 owing to district workers.

Officials said they are unable to sell anticipatory warrants to the banks to secure funds because all of last year's warrants have not been retired. The district will have to wait to learn if Emergency Disaster grant funds become available. If they do not, employees will be forced to wait until tax funds are distributed by St. Clair County.

HOME DESTROYED
The two-story home of Shirley Owen, 2338 Missouri Ave., Venice Township, was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. Venice firemen were at the scene from 11:37 p.m. Monday until 2:30 a.m. Tuesday. Cause of the fire is unknown. According to a Venice fire department spokesman, a neighbor reported hearing an explosion just before the fire. No one was home at the time of the fire and no estimate of damage was made by the firemen.

$8,000 damage to machine

Venice firemen were called to the scene of a fire on the McKinley bridge at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Jim Branham, of St. Louis, was driving west in the middle of the bridge pulling a stump machine.

The trailer pulling the stump apparently hit an expansion joint causing it to flip over and catch on fire. Damage to the machine is estimated at $8,000.

Venice firemen were on the call until 5 p.m.

Gospel singing at St. Paul's

An evening of old-time gospel singing is planned at 7:30 Saturday at St. Paul's Church of the Nazarene, 4300 Maryville Road.

The Rev. Jerry W. Harris, pastor, said the public is invited to hear The Kindles gospel singing group, plus the Young Men's Quartet from Grace Baptist Church.

A soloist, Keith Cattani, will offer a "message in song," the minister advised.

MIDDLE SCHOOL FIRE

The Madison fire department answered a fire call at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday to the construction site of the new Madison middle school. Construction material in a wooded area near a storage trailer was on fire. Firemen arrived but had caused $500 damage to the kitchen floor and $1,000 in smoke damage to the rest of the house.

$1,500 FIRE DAMAGE

Fire at the home of Armen Harris in the 2800 block of Southville Road caused an estimated $1,500 damage during the weekend. Harris was remodeling and had spread adhesive on paneling for the kitchen. Near when the stove pilot light ignited the vapors, firemen said. The fire was out when firemen arrived, but had caused $500 damage to the kitchen floor and $1,000 in smoke damage to the rest of the house.

as voted upon by a board of coaches. And, not surprisingly, Belleville East (2-0) and Belleville West (2-0) are fighting it out for the second place spot. But for the fourth position, a new challenger has come to the forefront — Granite City North.

Steelers on top of heap; South kickers in third spot

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City North Steelers may not have ever won a state championship in soccer, but if things go according to this week's Press-Record Soccer Coaches' Poll—the first of its kind ever—they may have a shot at it.

North finds itself in first place in the poll, gaining four of the five first place votes cast. The team with the other first place vote, Collinsville, is in second.

The team both North and Collinsville find themselves ahead of is the defending state champion and winners of the last three state titles in a row — Granite City South.

The Warriors, owners of a 3-2-3 record, are being held together at present with Scotch Tape and bailing wire. Injuries have hit them hard. All-Stater David fernandez, a junior, is out indefinitely with stretched ligaments in a knee, senior Phil Beljanski is out with a broken nose, and starter David James is out with a broken thumb.

North's Steelers, with a 4-0-1 record haven't played as many games as Collinsville, but obviously has impressed the coaches who have seen them — or realize the number of starters Coach Bob Kehoe has returning from last season. Kehoe's charges pulled of a 2-0 victory over tough Vianney of St. Louis Wednesday. Vianney defeated South 2-1 earlier this season.

Members of the Soccer Board are coaches Baker of South, Kehoe of North, Stranz of Collinsville, Marshall Brown of Alton in addition to Kevin Allen of the Press-Record staff. The poll will appear each Thursday.

South, West in tie in cross country too

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City South cross country team gave something to head coach Dick Harmon here Monday that he had never had a tie.

The Warrior varsity harriers and Belleville West finished their dual meet at Wilson Park with identical scores of 28. "In all my years of coaching, this is the first cross country tie I've ever seen in a dual," said Harmon.

In action at other levels, the South girls lost to West 21-37, the Warrior junior varsity lost to West 18-40 and the South freshmen lost 18-39.

In the varsity meet, West's Ken Cook was the individual medalist with a time of 14:45 over the 2.33 mile course. Tim Giesler of South was second in 14:59. Jeff Taylor third in 15:01, Dave Houston sixth in 15:37, Jo DeHuntz eight 15:47, Mike Peppe ninth 15:48 and Mike Gardner 10th 15:49. Each South runner's time was his best of the season.

In the girls meet, Sue Roberson of West was the medalist with a time of 13:29 over the two mile, 50 yard course. Peggy Flynn of South was second in a time of 13:52. Sandy Schreiber of South was sixth in 14:20, Mary Romine seventh 14:35, Dawn Hull 10th 14:56, Chris Wroblews 12th 15:06, Joy Williams 15th 15:46 and Fran Scott 16th 16:08.

In the junior varsity meet, South's Chris Cottrell was his team's highest finisher, placing third in a time of 17:19. In the freshman meet, Tom Paul was fourth in 13:04 and Jo DeShon fifth in 13:05.

North stays unbeaten with win over Vianney

GRANITE CITY — An inch isn't very long, but inches made a big difference here Wednesday — the difference between a close game and a not-so-close one. Despite missing on several good scoring chances early in the game, the Granite City North soccer team scored two late goals to beat Vianney (Mo.) 2-0 and raise its record to 4-0-1 on the season. The victory was especially sweet to North because of a 6-0 loss suffered at the hands of Vianney last season in Missouri.

"The kids didn't forget that they manhandled us pretty good over there last year," said North coach Bob Kehoe. "They discussed it among themselves before the game."
Vianney, a team that defeated Granite City South 2-1 two weeks ago in Missouri, was no slouch. Coach Mike Villa's team came into the game with a 2-1 loss to Bishop DuBorg being the only blemish on its slate. It has wins over South, Kennedy, Mercy and Webster Groves.
As tough as Vianney might be, the game was for the most part controlled by North. The Steelers demonstrated sharp passing and an ability to anticipate the flow of the action. "They (North) surprised the hell out of me," said Villa. "They've really got some fine talent on this team. I think they wanted the game more than we did."

Just how much did North control the game? Just take a look:

First half
— 31:08: North's Glenn Edwards passes to Mark Jones, streaking in front of the Vianney goal. The defense makes the save.
26:30: Steeler Bob Batey centers a pass to Jones directly in front of the net. Jones fans on the shot; 15:40: Edwards centers a pass to Jones who is standing two feet directly in front of the center of the net. He fans on the shot; 7:38: Mike Robertson slaps a 25-foot shot along the ground that is kicked away at the last split-second by the Vianney defense.

Second half
— 38:50: Edwards centers a pass for Jones, but it is grabbed at the last second by the Vianney goalie.
— 26:46: North's Kenny Myracle booms a 30-foot shot

Frustration

By KEVIN ALLEN
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Gary Carr, coach of the Belleville West soccer team became the first Granite City South opponent to proclaim, in not so many words, "We was robbed."

Even though the game ended in a 0-0 tie after two 5-minute overtimes, the Maroon coach felt the officiating cost West about as dearly as did South's stingy defense. "Call it crying if you want," Carr said. "But I think the officials just called a much closer game against us than they did against South."

In particular, two calls, both against West, met with obvious disapproval of the Belleville coach. The first came early in the game, quarter. Belleville's Ethan Litsy was defending against a South ball carrier.

Litsy was surprised by the referee's whistle. He was even more surprised to see the referee signal the foul against him. So much so, his complaints drew the wrath of the official; who rewarded Litsy a yellow card.

In second incident to which Carr objected came in the second of two overtime periods. West keeper Mike Howard was watching as both the ball and a South forward were rapidly approaching. The ball arrived before the South player and Howard scooped it up. But the Warrior forward followed the ball and upturned Howard, who nonetheless held onto the ball.

Carr shouted "Red card, red card." But no foul was called on the play. "They (the officials) just overlooked the whole thing," he said.

There was some confusion on about the actual number of fouls called in the games. South statistics indicated 18 fouls against South and 19 against West. West statistics had 14 fouls against South and 21 against West.

"I don't know what the actual numbers were," Carr said. "But it seemed like any momentum we had was killed by the fouls."

"They were picky calls, that's what makes me mad." It's unlikely though, even if the foul situation were reversed, that any drastic difference in the game would have resulted.

Although they couldn't put the ball in the nets, the Warriors did everything but. They controlled, except for a few instances, the flow of the game.

"We weren't capitalizing on our chances," South's coach Gene Baker said. "We're just not finishing the plays."

For a good part of the game, Baker paced the sidelines, urging the Warriors to take the ball outside and work it in from there to the goal. But time after time South instead put the ball into the congested middle in front of the Belleville goal.

"Our shot totals haven't been down," Baker said. "We're still outshooting the other teams. It's just that we're young and still trying to find ourselves."

"We've got three starters out, and the fact that we're outshooting everybody but not scoring gives a good indication of how we're missing them. The shots we're taking now are 18-yardsers when they should be 10-yardsers."

An indication of the type of mistakes the Warriors made in the game was displayed about mid-way through the second overtime period.

Tinsley found himself alone in front of the West goal. But his shot went well in front of keeper Howard was easily kept behind by the West keeper.

It was one of only two or three serious scoring threats South made in the game. The closest the Warriors came to ending the scoreless tie came in the third quarter.

South's Lloyd Sharp worked his way free from the pack with the ball in front of West's goal. His first shot was stopped by Howard, but Sharp found the rebound and sent it back. Again Howard made the stop, but this time the West defense cleared the ball before Sharp could recover.

Remember what a goal is?

GRANITE CITY — The goal. It's a pretty sight in the sport of soccer. It means one point on the scoreboard each time one is scored.

Time was when goals were abundant in Granite City high school soccer. Granite City South was beating up on teams by scores of 13-0 or 10-0. Granite City North did the same at times.

Then North beat up on Belleville Althoff.

But Granite City North and South last week battled to a scoreless tie at the Warriors' sports complex. Then on Tuesday past, south and Belleville West fought to a 0-0 deadlock at South.

Yesterday, North and powerful Vianney of St. Louis appeared headed for another scoreless tie. But the Steelers would have none of that.

After countless chances at scoring a goal, North's Mark Jones got free for a header into the net. Minutes later, teammate Mike Robertson scored the second goal in the team's 2-0 win.

Goals aren't as plentiful. But local teams will take what they can get.

Former Granite Cityan helping football Salukis

CARBONDALE — When Rey Dempsey became Southern Illinois University's 11th head football coach four years ago, he made one major promise — he would give Saluki fans a winning football program within a four-to-five year period.

He made one other promise, too, and that was that the Salukis would abandon the wishbone of offense and start throwing the football. His first three years provided little opportunity to make good on that offer, though, either because of strong running of Andre Hervey (1976) or Burrell Quinn (1978), or an effective offensive line (1977).

However, last Saturday night at Nashville, Tenn., the dean of Missouri Valley Conference coaches finally got a chance to show that he meant what he said as the Salukis aired it out 35 times — the most passes by an SIU team in nine years — in defeating Tennessee State, 18-16, handing the host Tigers their first home loss since 1975 and their second consecutive loss for the first time in coach John Merritt's 27-year reign.

"We want to throw the ball, but not out of desperation," Dempsey said when he was named to succeed Doug Weaver in December of 1975. "We want to be in the position of being able to throw the ball because we want to, not because the other team forces us into the passing game."

In the win over the Tigers, which raised SIU's record to 2-1 going into this Saturday's game at Arkansas State (7:30 p.m. kickoff at ASU's Indian Stadium), the Salukis demonstrated what Dempsey had planned. Starter

John Cornak completed 16 of 34 for 226 yards and a touchdown before sophomore Arthur "Slingshot" Williams brought his rifle to bear for the first time in 1979. Williams hit on two of four for 73 yards in the final minutes, including an incredible 60-yard bomb to split end Kevin House (eight receptions, school-record typing 189 yards) that carried to the TSU one-yard line and set up the Salukis' winning TD in the last 21 seconds.

"I had so much confidence in our ability to throw the ball that it didn't concern me too much when we weren't able to run on them," Dempsey said (SIU had just 36 yards on the ground). "We've looked good on pass protection and they weren't a blitzing team."

Among the Salukis on defense will be former Granite City North Steeler Jim Woodward, who transferred to SIU last season from Iowa State.

Woodward played his freshman, sophomore and junior years at North before moving to Collinsville his senior year. He was a teammate at North of Illinois State fullback Mike Donoff. At North, he also played basketball and was on the track team. He stands six feet tall and weighs 240 pounds. He is a junior.

Jogging: Is it the perfect sport?

Commentary

By KEVIN ALLEN of the Press-Record

Not long ago, after a frustrating game of tennis, I found myself hitting a tennis ball against a backboard.

The kind of rhythmic movement, the disregard for concentration, the imitation of sport, these all make backboard tennis a great time for thought.

What I was thinking about was the perfect sport. Not a spectator sport, but one the average person can enjoy doing by himself.

I thought about what qualities this sport of sports would have to have to appeal to everyone.

It must, I thought, absolutely not involve any form of competition. Competition leads to pressure, which in turn leads normally rational people to silly exhibitions of emotions, like throwing tennis rackets.

About this time in my little game of backboard tennis, the ball became wedged between the fence and the backboard. It was on the 23rd return of the wall. I was shooting for 25 returns, and naturally missing on the 23rd upped me.

I picked up my racket and continued.

The perfect sport would also require little, if any, concentration. I thought, Here, I lost my train of thought. The tennis ball had bounced back and hit me — smack — in the head. I wasn't watching.

Backboard tennis had been eliminated also. All organized sports such as baseball, football, basketball, soccer are based on the idea of competition.

There are a number of by-products, spin-offs of these organized sports. Things like playing pepper in baseball, horse in basketball, touch football. These all require, to some degree, equipment and other people, and the perfect sport, I think, shouldn't. The spin-off sports are merely athletic self-indulgence. A way to pass the time of day while receiving the illusion of athletic accomplishment.

So the perfect sport should have none of that. It should be non-competitive and relaxed. It should require a minimum of equipment and should be able to be played by a single person. It wouldn't be related to another sport. And it shouldn't be just athletic busy-work.

Those are pretty restrictive requirements. But I think I know of an activity that would fit this specific bill.

Jogging.

Done alone, there's no competition. It can be done at a pace that's slow enough to relax a victim of a peptic ulcer.

A jogger needs no special equipment, not even shoes. I've seen people jog in street shoes. But these are people whose relationship with their feet obviously ended long ago.

Although jogging might be considered akin to running by some, from what I've seen, the resemblance between the average jogger and someone like Craig Virgin, is about the same as a tractor to a Cadillac; there isn't any.

As for being merely athletic self-indulgence, there isn't any danger. Just ask any jogger and you will find how seriously he or she takes jogging. The joggers' zeal approaches religious fanaticism, and it can get obnoxious.

But jogging is the perfect sport. And if you jog, you too can be happy, relaxed, athletically fulfilled — and probably bored stiff.

Boxing coming

GRANITE CITY — A new boxing club is in the process of being formed. The club, which will be for boys and young men age 10 and over, will do its training in facilities at the Granite City Army Depot.
Mendoza has announced that any person wanting to participate in the boxing club should contact him at his sporting goods store, 2740 Madison Ave. or call 452-5500.
A Mateur boxing was popular in Granite City in the late 1940's and early 1950's. Several of the men who boxed at that time have been contacted and have agreed to be come coaches for the new club.

YMCA forming V-ball leagues

GRANITE CITY — The Tri-City Area YMCA announced today that fall volleyball leagues will begin on Saturday, Sept. 22 and Sunday, Sept. 23. Because of high demand, four separate volleyball leagues will function.
On Saturday afternoon a B coed league will play, with the A coed league playing on Saturday evenings. There is only one opening in the "A" league. Anyone interested in three openings in the "B" league.
On Sunday, a women's powerball league will play in the afternoon and a men's powerball league will play in the evening.
Fee for all leagues are $55 per team. Anyone interested in placing a team or individual player should call Ed Mercer at the "Y" at 876-7200.

South loses by one stroke again

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City South golf team lost Wednesday to Collinsville by one stroke. So what is new?
The 183-164 team lost the fourth one-stroke loss suffered by the Warriors this season, leaving Coach Boone Chancey wondering what he has to do to pick up a stroke or two somewhere.

Previous losses were to Granite City North 169-166, Edwardsville 168-169 and Alton 162-163.

Craig Virgin torun in Natural Light race

ST. LOUIS — Craig Virgin, the American record holder at 10,000 meters, will set the pace for St. Louis area runners in the Natural Light Stadium Run on Sunday, Sept. 30, conducted by the St. Louis Track Club.

Although runners normally would not be able to keep pace with Virgin of Lebanon, Ill., the handicap system of the Natural Light Stadium Run gives them a crack at the Olympic hopeful.
"Since the race has a handicapped start, it will be possible for some of St. Louis's better older runners to cross the finish line ahead of Virgin," said John Clairborne, general manager of the St. Louis Baseball Cardinals, one of the event sponsors.
"Believe me, I'll be out there with a lot of other guys trying to knock off Virgin. That would be some thrill," Clairborne said.
The 6.2-mile run through the streets of downtown St. Louis begins at 11:30 a.m. on the south side of Busch Stadium on Spruce Street, and concludes with runners racing onto the baseball field prior to the Cardinals' final game of the season against the New York Mets.
Following national handicap standards, a head start is given to runners in half-minute increments depending on their age and sex. The race is limited to the first 3,000 runners who register in advance.

three inches wide of the upper right-hand corner of the goal.
24:29: Robertson centers a pass to Myracle in front of the net. Myracle comes through the pileup, but the goalie makes the save.
22:55: Robertson takes the ball at midfield, dribbles all the way down the right sideline, takes a left toward the goal and centers directly in front of the net to Jones, who fired it over the net.
Just when Kehoe probably was starting to think his team would need a score a goal, it did. With 13:27 left in the game, Jones redeemed himself by heading a corner kick from Myracle into the upper right-hand corner of the goal.
As if one goal wasn't enough, Robertson got into the act with 5:37 showing on the clock. Taking a long pass from Batey at midfield, he dribbled his way through the Vianney defense and fired a shot from the left side of the goal.
Villa expressed amazement at the Steelers' hustle. "I don't think they could have tried any harder than they did," he said.
North was out-shot 19-11. Vianney had the edge in corner kicks 7-4.

6-1 vote on teacher pay

A 6-1 split developed on the Granite City Board of Education Tuesday night as it voted approval of a new two-year teacher agreement and as it adopted the final 1979-80 school district budget.

Board Member David Partney cast negative votes and issued a statement relating to the teacher agreement ratification and the new budget.

Other board members informally criticized his dissent, asserting that all seven board members had guided the negotiators in their bargaining stands.

Board Member Monroe Worthen, noting the opposition Tuesday night to the amount of teacher raises granted, distributed copies of an April 5, 1978, campaign comment in which David Partney promised bigger pay raises than the board had been granting and urged public support for those who avoid "overlooking or neglecting" teachers' interests.

Commenting after the board meeting, Worthen said laws prevent the board from requiring teachers to live within the district.

Worthen said teachers' pay here is comparable to other area districts; Granite City schools are in better condition financially than are many school systems; and the state has requested but not mandated a spending limit.

The text of Board Member Partney's statement follows:

"After much reflection and soul searching, I have determined to vote against both the proposed contract and the budget for the next year. Because of the importance of these matters, I have outlined briefly my reasons for these votes.

"First, the proposed contract will provide for a cost to the district over the next two years of an additional amount of $2,606,718 in teachers' salaries alone. "When additional costs for other services are included, the additional costs will exceed three million dollars. "This increase of 23 percent over two years far exceeds federal guidelines and exceeds the percentage granted to other professions and trades prior to the negotiation of this contract," Partney said.

"Projections of the amount of money which this district may have to spend in these next two years will be, by necessity, highly speculative.

"This results from inexperience with the new personal property replacement tax. This uncertainty is increased by the possibility of a recession.

"All economic indications point to a mild to severe recession in this same time frame.

"The possibility of the necessity of additional taxes and an increase in existing taxes necessitates my decision to vote against the contract in question.

"Additional factors in my consideration of the contract provisions are that approximately 50 percent of the teachers employed by this district reside outside the boundaries of the district.

"The residents in this district would add considerably to the tax base, if some provisions were made requiring residency of employees.

"Turning to the budget, I am unable to vote to approve a budget which shows the district, based on accrual accounting, going into the red next year.

"After closing three schools last year, it seems fiscally irresponsible to include items for site acquisition in this budget.

"Numerous items such as travel expenses and new provisions I find objectionable.

"However, the 'bottom line' is that this budget does not demonstrate the necessary limit to spending which Governor Thompson and others have mandated to the school districts of this state.

"The combination of inexperience with the new tax structure and our current realistic situation necessitates measures which this budget does not reflect." Partney's statement Tuesday concluded.

FIRE DAMAGES WALL
A trash fire behind Granite City Fence, 18th and State street early this week spread to the rear of the building and caused an estimated $500 damage. Firemen believe someone lighted the trash intentionally.

Farm tax schooling

Tax practitioners and consultants from Madison County will be brought up-to-date on federal and state income tax rules during a two-day tax school Dec. 6 and 7 at the Firemen's Hall in Collinsville. The program runs from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day.

The Farm Income Tax School is one of 24 being presented throughout the state by the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service. It is restricted to persons who prepare income tax returns for others. While oriented to preparing farm tax returns, the schools will also offer information relating to all types of income tax returns.

Advance registration is required and only persons who have pre-enrolled will be able to attend. Enrollees will be assigned to the location of their choice on a first come basis.

Quad-Cityans may obtain an enrollment form by calling the Madison County Extension office at 900 Hillsboro, Edwardsville (phone 656-8400). Each participant will pay a $35 registration fee.

MULTIPLE CHARGES

Patrick Kevin Squires, 31, of 1433 Seventh St., Madison was arrested during the weekend and is to appear in court charges of failure to pay, disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. The charges all stem from his allegedly refusing to pay a $1.50 cab fare and fighting with police.

Faces cannabis charge

Jim E. Johnson, 23, of Edwardsville, was arrested Saturday morning in Granite City on a charge of unlawful possession of cannabis and disorderly conduct. Bond was set at $300.

Police, responding to a call about a man slumped over the wheel of a truck at 12:20 a.m. Saturday, near 25th Street and Dewey avenue, found Johnson allegedly trying to hide in an auto parked directly across the street from the truck.

Johnson allegedly had a large laceration over his right eye and blood on his hands and face.

Blood was also found on the steering wheel of the truck, police said. The car belonged to a friend of Johnson, but he was unable to account for the truck. The truck was towed to A-1 Auto for detectives to check, due to no owner identification.

Police said they found 22 capsules of Valium and a bag of cannabis in Johnson's right front shirt pocket.

APARTMENT ENTERED

Nothing is known missing after a break-in at the apartment of Tina Spalding, 2520 Parkside Drive, Apt. 9, early this week. Entry was believed gained from an attic crawl space. Several drawers in the apartment were opened and searched.

United goal—fine area in which to live, work

(Tri-Cities Area United Way)
The Tri-Cities Area United Way, Inc., has established a substantially increased basic campaign goal for the fall 1979 area effort of $750,000.

TCAUW president is Paul J. Costello and the general campaign chairman is George Knecht.

The campaign seeks to fund 1980 United Way services and agencies, including:

Co-ordinated Youth Services, Inc.; Family Counseling Center of Southwestern Illinois; Visiting Nurses Association of St. Clair County and lower Madison County.

Protestant Welfare Association; Madison County Urban League; the Salvation Army; Tri-Cities Association for Retarded; American National Red Cross; Tri-City Chapter.

Alcoholic Rehabilitation Community Home; The Arthritis Foundation, Eastern Missouri (including Madison County, Ill.) Chapter.

Quad-Cities Catholic Charities; Children's Home and Aid Society of Illinois; Tri-City Area YMCA.

Cahokia Mound Boy Scout Council; River Bluffs Girl Scout Council; United Way Central Information and Referral programs.

Core costs of United Way Community Service Access Centers, including Food Pantry, Clothing and Furniture Exchange programs and AFL-CIO Community Service projects.

United Way Single Family Burn-out Financial Aid Project; and United Way fair-around operations, including general administration, budget allocations and priorities committee functions; resource development and annual United Way campaign committee functions; communications function.

Special program or project administration, including coordination of United Way agencies; co-located at Community Service Access Centers; and centrally-funded independent audits for member agencies.

The expanded campaign goal was based on a realistic review of current local economic conditions, and assessment of the contribution potential by United Way campaign group vice chairmen, including M. J. Chestovich, Leo Scherer, George Amish Jr., Melvin Wilmsmeyer and Dr. Felicia D. Koch.

Also United Way campaign division chairmen, including George Moore Sr., Chris Geroff, Alan Walker, Father M. J. Quilligan, Gene McGovern, Dr. George T. Wilkins Jr., Richard G.

Dwight Hendricks, Cedar Shrine; Robert Greer, Noel Shrine; Oco Woods, Gaspar Shrine; Orville Mills, Judea Shrine; and Harry Joverde, Freedom Shrine.

Guests in the east were

Roberts, Charles Wilcox, Richard Ault, Elinor Null, Dave Anderson.

And Bill Badger, Bob Karanduff, William Griggs, Dick Kimer, Dave Schermer, Tom Majewski, Ray Grisham, John A. Ubaldi, Charles King, Bill Donovan, Norton Kenke, Ron Luebben and Darryl Slater.

Plus campaign leadership evaluation of the strength of United Way volunteer solicitor capabilities and qualifications.

"We believe this is the most outstanding United Way campaign team yet to be assembled in our area," United Way Campaign Chairman George Knecht says.

"We owe much to those who have preceded us in United Way volunteer work. They have made it possible for us to successfully team up and reach for even higher levels of privately-supported community services and funding resources."

"With their continuing aid, the growing contributor base desire to provide the best possible place for all of us to work or live."

"As International Business Machine's T. J. Watson Sr., founder of the company in 1914, used to put it, 'It is better to aim at perfection and miss, than it is to aim at imperfection and hit it.'" private non-profit philanthropic endeavors of our community," he added.

"We believe our community is committed to excellence," Knecht added.

The 1979 United Way campaign goal represents an increase of $146,087 or 23 percent over last year's total budget.

The fall 1978 campaign goal of $548,000 was met and exceeded by 10 percent at the close of that campaign and the $601,000 raised was fully allocated to local agencies, services and operations after allowances for uncollectable pledges or changes in employment affecting the United Way payroll deduction projections were made by the TCAUW board directors.

"While the percentage and dollar goal increase is extremely large, we believe our community will favorably consider the need to do all we can to preserve our local business and home community service dedication base," Knecht said.

"This can maintain our cherished and continuing desire to provide the best possible place for all of us to work or live."

"We believe our community is committed to excellence," Knecht added.

Supreme Worthy Chaplain Ruth Hartsoe of Belleville, and Supreme Trustee Delia Miller of Springfield.

Also attending were Sylvia Mosher, worthy high priestess, and Emery Mosher, superintendent of the board of directors, from Oklahoma City, Okla.

The dining room tables were decorated with floral arrangements.

The next meeting will honor past officers and charter members.

David Janssen often plays for laughs

David Janssen stars as John Jacob Astor, the multi-millionaire who was among the passengers on the Titanic's ill-fated maiden voyage, in "S.O.S. Titanic," a three-hour movie airing on ABC, Sunday, Sept. 23. Therefore, a visitor asked the actor a perfectly serious question.

"That was a mistake. Did you ever take a ship?" Janssen was asked.

"Not me," the actor answered with the profoundness of frowns. "I didn't take a ship. I didn't take anything. Who told you I took a ship? Was it your ship? When was it taken?"

The star, known for years as the serious Dr. Kimball on "The Fugitive," turned to the surprised diners at the next table.

"Did you take this man's ship?" he asked. "There's too much of that sort of thing going around. You just can't ignore it."

Janssen can get as serious as the next man when the facts are that he is also that classic American figure: the cutup.

The irrepressible tease is only a part of the actor, of course; a moment's serious conversation made it clear that he had done his homework researching Astor before starting work on "S.O.S. Titanic."

"People gave Astor a very rough time of it when he divorced his wife and married a girl about half his age," Janssen explained. "They had been on their honeymoon and they were returning from Europe on the Titanic; Astor's wife — who was pregnant — survived, but he was among the men who went down with the ship."

After proving to everyone's satisfaction that he hadn't taken anyone's ship, Janssen acknowledged that "I was on one of the last great ocean voyages; nowadays we fly wherever — I fly a plane myself — and when we arrive we don't know we're there until three days later and it's time to go. Boat travel was a good idea."

Funny things happen to

David Janssen

Janssen, such as being interrogated by an English bobby who thought he looked "suspicious" and held him for questioning while the star waited for his wife at the airport.

"I think the guy was about 18," Janssen said with delight, "and he had never seen any of my TV shows. The funny thing was that he wouldn't believe anything I told him — or my identification — and he insisted on calling Central Headquarters or something with my description. All the time people are coming over to me, talking about 'The Fugitive,' and I'm signing autographs. It was beautiful, the boy simply refused to pay any attention. To him I looked 'suspicious.'"

When he finally accepted the fact that I was a perfectly harmless actor I asked for his name and promised that I'd go on the London talk shows and he would be famous."

When Janssen tells the story it is only for the humor involved in the human situation; he obviously wasn't angry with the officer. Anger doesn't seem to be one of his traits, and he has a logical reason for avoiding temperamental star trips.

"I'm not always happy with what's going on around me, but the trouble with getting upset and turning red in the face is that you hurt yourself. So I don't."

And he doesn't take other people's ships, either. So don't bother phoning Central Headquarters with his description.

Priority for gym at SIUE

Construction of the proposed multi-purpose health education, physical education and recreation building at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and remodeling of the Women's Gym at SIUE at Carbondale head the capital budget priority listing for the SIUE system for fiscal year 1981, newly approved by the SIUE Board of Trustees.

The priority listing will be submitted to the Illinois Board of Higher Education as part of the Resource Allocation and Management Program (RAMP), a budgeting plan instituted by the IBHE as the first in a series of steps required in development of actual operating and capital fund requests for the year beginning July 1, 1980.

SIUE at Edwardsville has 11 projects for which $13.9 million will be sought, while SIUE at Carbondale lists 15 projects totaling $11.2 million, for a system total of $25.1 million.

System officers said the total request is $15 million less than the preliminary proposal presented to the board in July.

In subsequent discussions, it was agreed that no more than one new building request would be initiated in a particular year by each of the four major sites within the system, with the exception that special projects may be recognized.

Top priority also was given to the completion of existing projects which have been partially funded, and to projects deemed necessary to retain or acquire accreditation of a program.

Planning funds have been released by the governor for the multi-purpose building at SIUE, which is the new building sought by the SIUE system for FY 1981, with a funding request of $9.6 million.

Other SIUE projects listed include: instrumental music rehearsal annex, planning—$113,000; School of Dental Medicine facility, planning—$367,000; remodeling for handicapped and safety—$446,300; computerized energy management utilities—$284,000; East St. Louis Center, remodeling—$1,020,000.

Replacement of roofs, rehabilitation—$344,800; Communications Building, remodeling—$207,800; resurfacing of roads and drives, rehabilitation—$625,700.

Replacement of carpeting, rehabilitation—$248,800; and replacement of portions of Bluff Road, rehabilitation—$658,500.

At the Carbondale campus, the major project on the priority listing—remodeling of the Women's Gym—has a funding request of $3.3 million. Approximately $3.2 million has been requested for capital projects for food production at SIUC.

In addition to limiting new building requests to one per year, other attempts to bring capital budget requests into "realistic focus" will include a plan for each university to identify known needs for capital projects in a 10-year schedule which will be prepared as a supplementary document to RAMP.

Consideration also will be given to "phasing" a new facility when it is practical to do so.

AUDITIONS SEPT. 29
FOR COMEDY ROLES
 Auditions for "Plaza Suite," the first theater production at SIUE during the 1979-80 season, will be held Saturday, Sept. 29, from noon until 5 p.m. in the Communications Building theater.

Anyone may audition for this production, including students, faculty, staff and members of the community. All participants are to prepare a two-minute monologue of any type.

Roles for six women and five men will be cast for the comedy play. Observers will be welcome. Callbacks will follow immediately after the final audition at 5 p.m.

Performances of "Plaza Suite" are scheduled Nov. 1, 2, 3 and 4 at the university.

Architects recommended

Architects for two projects at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville have been recommended to the Illinois Capital Development Board (CDB) by the Architecture and Design Committee of the SIU Board of Trustees.

Acting on authority granted by the SIU Board on July 12, the committee reported last week it has recommended the firm of Robert Burkhardt and Associates, Chicago, as architect for the Energy Management System project and the firm of Hellmuth, Obata and Kassabaum as architect for roof rehabilitation projects for the Communications Building and Science and Technology Building.

In related action, the SIU Board has just approved procedure under which the Architecture and Design Committee will operate.

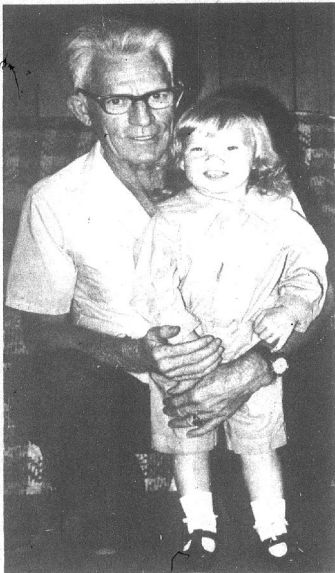

The committee was created by the board in May for the purpose of reviewing all capital improvement projects which affect the function and appearance of the campuses.

The recommendation of the architect for the Energy Management System was submitted by the committee to the CDB after notification was received from the CDB that the firm proposed by the SIU board in July was not an acceptable selection.

University officers said the Burkhardt firm was selected on the basis of the firm's successful completion of similar projects in the state, and past experience on university projects.

Funding for the Energy Management System in the amount of $257,000 was provided in fiscal year 1979 appropriations to the CDB, as part of the SIU capital budget. Purpose of the system is to monitor and regulate building environmental conditions automatically.

The firm recommended to the CDB for the roof rehabilitation projects originally designed both buildings to which repairs will be made.

GRANDPA'S CLOTHES. Richard Rainey, 62, poses, with his granddaughter, Staci Dowdy, 2, as she shows off the suit of clothes worn by Rainey when he left the Children's Society Home, Nashville, Tenn., 60 years ago. Rainey spent many years after leaving the home in search of relatives. He was the same age as Staci is now when he was taken in by the W. T. Boyd family.

Workshop on curbing rape

YOUTH TAKES CAR. Dennis Lynn Coleman, 3406 Kirkpatrick Homes, was walking to his car in the 4300 block of Kirkpatrick Homes, when he saw a youth with dark hair drive away in the auto. He telephoned police who aided him in searching for the auto, which was found abandoned on Ridgedale Avenue between East 24th and Edwards streets. Coleman said the ignition was faulty and did not require a key.

A workshop for volunteers, practicum students and others interested in the problem of rape and its prevention will be held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville on Sept. 28. The workshop is free. Sponsored by the Rape and Sexual Abuse Care Center at the university, the one-day workshop is scheduled from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Commons Building located within the Tower Lake housing area.

The day's activities will include an overview of the problem of rape, and a film presentation on its prevention. Pam Klein, director of the Abuse Care Center, will be the instructor. Additional information may be obtained by contacting her at 692-2197.

The Lighter Side

By Cathey Jamison
Press-Record Feature Editor

First, open mouth; then insert foot

I have this problem with my mouth. It gets me in more trouble almost as much trouble as my pen.

The last time I wrote about a friend, I lost her forever. In trying to be clever I hurt her feelings and there was just no way for me to tell her how sorry I was. But that's 'ol Cathey for ya: open mouth, insert foot.

But I am a brave soul so I will tell the story of the black dress. My ignorant mouth was the cause of trouble again. May I never look upon another black dress.

It all began on Homestead Day. I was involved in the fashion show and so was my friend, here and forever to be referred to as Friend X.

There was a lot of lustre and bustle going on that day, especially for me. I was taking pictures of everything in sight and had to hurry to make it to the shop for which I was to model.

I saw Friend X standing near the stage on my way to the shop. I took a few pictures of her as she paraded across the stage in a black dress. I had to make adjustments on the camera to compensate for the fact that the day was very sunny, the dress was very black and my very blonde friend looked very pale.

Later that evening I mentioned that I had had to make a lot of lighting adjustments to take her picture, and told her how pale her light skin looked in the black dress. DUMB move. I shrank from my 5 foot 7 inch height to two inches tall when she told me that she had bought the dress and asked me why I didn't like it.

I tried to explain that the dress was beautiful, but that under those lighting conditions she had looked pale next to the color of the dress. I was getting in deeper.

The next evening I saw Friend X again and she was wearing the black dress. He crawled under the table as she told some of our dinner companions about how I hated her new (and very expensive, I might add) dress.

John Auble was at that dinner table and picked right up on the black dress. He teased Friend X all evening about it. I was looking for a hole to bury myself in.

Friend X took all of the abuse well, smiling and being gracious. I was DYING. I had been the cause of all of the teasing.

I went up to Friend X and told her that I was SO SORRY I had made the comment, and she was very sweet.

But I'll be most surprised if she ever speaks to me again. Another case of open mouth, insert foot. I really have a way about me...a STUPID way.

I think I will have my big mouth wired shut. Using it is no way for me to win friends and influence people.

Auxiliary to start new season Monday

St. Elizabeth Medical Center Auxiliary will open its 1979-80 season with a special program at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the center's Wiesman Room.

Mrs. Louise Smith, auxiliary president, said members are being urged to attend the opening session and guests may be invited. A special feature of the evening will be a style show, with the latest fall fashions being presented by Tops 'N' Bottoms Shop, 1343 Nineteenth St.

Refreshments will be served after the business session and show.

Mrs. Clara Schillinger is coordinating arrangements for the fashion segment. Also planned Monday is the auxiliary's annual election of officers, Mrs. Smith advised.

Six youths arrested

Six Madison youths face various charges after being arrested in Tri-City Park at 1:55 a.m. Sunday.

Fred E. Bosworth, 19, of 1688 Second St., has been released on $35 cash bond after being charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Police were dispatched to the park reference a disturbance and found a white van with numerous empty beer bottles around it. Jesse Martes, 17, of 1825 Market St. and Stanley D. Wells, 17, 1907 Fourth St. were both released to their parents after posting a $35 cash bond on a charge of curfew violation.

Two 16-year-old boys were released to their fathers on a notice to appear in court.

FACES TWO CHARGES

Jeffery A. Mills, 24, who gave his address as building 100 of the Granite City Army Installation, was charged during the weekend with unlawful possession of cannabis, illegal transportation of alcohol and driving while intoxicated. Police said he was found asleep behind the wheel of his car on Route 3 near the A. O. Smith plant. Bond was set at $270 cash. Bond. Police allegedly found three open cans of beer in a styrofoam case inside the car and a yellow envelope in his shirt pocket containing cannabis.

HITS CYCLONE FENCE
Riggs, 2807 Harding Ave. was being held at Granite City jail pending the posting of $100 cash bond. He is charged with reckless driving and driving while intoxicated during the weekend. He was stopped by police at 18th Street and Benton Avenue after the car he was driving allegedly ran off the road and struck a cyclone fence belonging to Loren Worthen at 1100 Niedringhaus Ave. Riggs is scheduled in court on Friday, Oct. 12.

Rehearsals by choral society

The Community Choral Society at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will begin rehearsals for its Christmas program on Tuesday, Sept. 25, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 1402 of the Peck Classroom building.

Phil Calagano, president of the society and librarian at Lovejoy Library, said the group will be preparing a late 19th Century work by Joseph Rheinberger, titled "Star of Bethlehem."

This Christmas cantata, for soprano, bass soloists, chorus and piano, will be performed Dec. 9.

The Community Choral Society is a four-voice choral group of more than 100 members from area communities. People who like to sing are encouraged to join the group, Calagano said.

No auditions are required, but members are asked to pay a nominal membership fee and purchase their own music. Leonard Van Camp, director of choral activities at the university, will conduct the cantata.

In the past, singers have performed such well-known works as Haydn's "Creation," Handel's

"Messiah" and Verdi's "Requiem."

Last season, they performed Mendelssohn's "Elijah" under the direction of Jerrold Otley, conductor of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir.

Next spring, the choral society, along with the SIUE Orchestra, will perform Arthur Honegger's "King David." Additional information concerning the Choral Society may be obtained by contacting Van Camp at 692-3590, or by attending the first rehearsal.

FIRE DESTROYS CAR
The auto of Gus Smoer, 2417 Washington Ave., was destroyed by fire Monday in the 2400 block of East 23rd Street. The owner said the car had stalled, so he disconnected the fuel line to check the fuel filter. Gasoline apparently dripped on the hot engine and ignited, firemen were told. The engine compartment and front seat of the 1970 Buick Skylark, were gutted by the flames before Granite City firemen could extinguish the blaze.

Hospice volunteers are sought; Chamber Women's Division elects Mrs. Scannell

The Women's Division of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce held its September meeting at the Holiday Inn, Edwardsville. Prior to dinner, Mrs. Sharon Rush gave the "thought for today."

Mrs. Ruth Brown, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Betty Safdar, who explained the Hospice program being started in Madison County. She told of the need for volunteers in various capacities. They will be used to provide many services for terminally ill patients and their families, such as visiting, running errands, baby-sitting, and transportation.

Volunteers also are needed for office work, speaking, etc. There are training sessions for the volunteers, who will be part of a team which includes a physician, nurse, social worker and clergyman. Hospice is also in need of contributions until it can become self-supporting through acceptance of coverage by various medical insurance plans, Mrs. Safdar said.

Patients are referred based on their needs and their families' needs, rather than on ability to pay.

Mrs. Barbara Duffin, chairman of the Homestead Day Committee, reported on the final plans. An information booth was operated at Civic Park by the committee.

Mrs. Billie Schuler reported that tulips for the tulip booth at Homestead Day had not been shipped from Holland. Instead, were taken, with delivery later. Mrs. Lois Winter, Women's Division president, conducted the election of new officers during the business meeting and thanked all who helped in accomplishing the past year's goals and activities.

The 1979-80 officers are: president Mrs. Jeanette Scannell; vice-president, Mrs. Bonnie Goldenberg; secretary, Mrs. Shirley Fountain; treasurer, Mrs. Tina Thomas; historian, Mrs. Barbara Duffin; and board members, Mrs. Mary Danner and Mrs. Elinor Nichols.

Continuing as board members are Mrs. Shirley Cunningham and Mrs. Beverly Partney. Following her election, Mrs. Scannell thanked her thanks and asked for support during the coming year.

The group noted a telephone urge seminar

Sept. 19 at the YMCA and the annual Chamber dinner meeting Oct. 25 at the Sunset Hills Country Club.

Members attending were Mesdames Bonnie Goldenberg, Shirley Fountain, Dorothy Milton, Tina Thomas, Duffin, Winter, Shirley Cunningham, Peggy Burch, Beverly Partney, Dorothy Young, Schuler, Scannell, Janet Partney, Elinor Nichols.

Mesdames Barbara Cunningham, Jacquie Abrams, Mary Sedekum, Brown, Mary Jesse, Shirley Adams, Edith Rossi, Jackie Reinagel and Dr. Felicia Koch; Chamber staff members Mrs. Bonnie Sullivan and Mrs. Kay Pomeroy; and a guest, Mrs. Marjean Miller.

Those holding tulip tickets are to call the Chamber office, 876-6400.

Preventive maintenance instruction

A two-day seminar to help modern business managers organize and run a preventive maintenance program for their company will be held Oct. 23 at the Henry VIII Inn and Lodge in St. Louis County.

"Modern preventive maintenance is more than a guy with a grease gun and an oil can," according to James Miller Jr., director of the Center for Management Studies in the SIUE School of Business, sponsor of the program.

Current PM techniques can extend the life of equipment, increase safety, cut down on the number of daily emergency repair calls, make more effective use of maintenance personnel and spare parts, and reduce equipment downtime, he said.

The seminar offers individual classes in basic concepts, advance planning, specific components and start-up steps of a preventive maintenance program.

Hugh R. Greene or A. W. Kallmeier, consultants in the engineering management division of Syska and Hennessy, an international engineering consulting firm, will teach all the sessions.

Persons interested in additional information or registration forms may contact the Center for Management Studies, SIUE School of Business, at 682-2200. Registration is limited and will be completed on a first-come basis.

The registration fee is $300, including coffee breaks, luncheons and all meeting materials. All classes meet between 9 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. daily.

The manufacturing engineering certification seminar has approved the institute for six professional credits per seminar day attended toward the SME recertification program.

TEST SENSOR is put into place on the exhaust pipe of a car being tested Thursday afternoon by Jerry Blair, environmental planner for the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council. The sensor is placed about six inches into the tailpipe of the car and detects hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide being emitted. The testing took place in the parking lot of the Nameoki Village Shopping Center.

HOLLOWAY AT BANK GRADUATE SCHOOL

Thomas Holloway, First Granite City National Bank, Granite City, was among those attending the 35th annual session of the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. The school is sponsored by the Central States Conference of Bankers Associations from 16 Midwestern states.

About 1,600 bankers were enrolled this year from 42 states, Puerto Rico and Honduras. To be listed as a graduate of the school, a banker must attend three of the annual two-week sessions at UW-Madison and satisfactorily complete extension problems between the resident sessions. A faculty of more than 100 instructors this year included bankers specializing in a number of fields, as well as lawyers, business executives, economists and college professors.

$207 million internal budget for '79-80 operation of SIU

The Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees has approved a $207,980,000 operating budget for the Carbondale and Edwardsville campuses and the Office of the Chancellor, based on state appropriations and anticipated non-appropriated income for fiscal year 1980, which begins July 1.

The budget, which reflects an increase of $18.1 million or 9.5 percent over last year, is based on estimated income of $141.4 million from state appropriations and $66.6 million in non-appropriated funds.

Of the state appropriations, which account for about 68 percent of the total operating budget, the Carbondale campus will receive $88.3 million, a 15.4 percent increase over last year, while the local campus will receive $42.1 million, a 9.7 percent increase. Officials said the Office of the Chancellor will receive $901,500, an increase of 6.8 percent. The figures include retirement fund contributions.

State appropriated funds consist of general revenue funds (tax dollars) and income fund collections, derived primarily from tuition and fees.

General revenue funds will support about 57 percent of the projected FY 1980 budget, while income fund collections are expected to support about 11 percent.

Projected non-appropriated funds represent a net increase of approximately $1.3 million over last year, with the Carbondale campus budgeted for an increase of $1.8 million, with a total of $54.3 million, and SIUE budgeted for a decrease of $548,000, with a total of $12.3 million.

Funds in the non-appropriated category include income received in support of research and other programs sponsored by governmental entities and private foundations and corporations; revenues received as reimbursement of indirect costs on sponsored programs; revenues from operation of revenue bond financed auxiliary enterprises; principally housing and student center operations; and revenues from other self-supporting enterprises and activities which are funded primarily by student fees and operating charges.

University officers explained that the increase in state appropriations is unusually large because it includes certain funds previously retained in the university's treasury and classified as non-appropriated. These funds are now deposited in the state treasury, and their expenditure is subject to appropriation by the General Assembly, in compliance with financial guidelines instituted by the Legislative Audit Commission.

For FY 1980, these funds previously in the non-appropriated category total $6.8 million and include revenues from off-campus degree programs totaling $5.4 million at SIUC and $1.2 million at SIUE.

The increase in state appropriated funds also provides salary increases averaging 7.5 percent for all employees; price increase funds of 6 percent for goods and services other than library materials and utilities, 15 percent for library materials, and 16.5 and 14 percent for utilities at SIUE and SIUC, respectively.

Also, $115,500 for operation and maintenance of new space at SIUC, and $600,900 for new and expanded or improved programs; $245,400 at SIUC, $225,000 at SIUE, and $128,400 at SIUE.

Other special items funded in the budget include: repairs and maintenance, $265,800 at SIUC and $95,800 at SIUC; equipment replacement, $325,000 at SIUC and $175,000 at SIUE; and fire protection, $12,000 at SIUC and $5,200 at SIUE.

 She was gone before we

 Technical information or comments are solicited on the proposed base (100-year) flood elevations listed below for selected locations in the nation. These base (100-year) flood elevations are the basis for the flood plain management measures that the community is required to either adopt or show evidence of being already in effect in order to qualify or remain qualified for participation in the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP).
DATES:
 The period for comment will be ninety (90) days following the second publication of this proposed rule in a newspaper of local circulation in each community.
ADDRESSES:

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:
 The Federal Insurance Administrator gives notice of the proposed determinations of base (100-year) flood elevations for selected locations in the nation, in accordance with section 110 of the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 (Pub.
 L. 93-234), 87 Stat. 980, which added section 1363 to the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (Title XIII of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (Pub. L. 90-448), 42 U.S.C. 4001-4128, and 44 CFR Part 67.4 (a).
 These elevations, together with the flood plain management measures required by section 60.3 of the program regulations, are the minimum that are required.
 They should not be construed to mean the community must change any existing ordinances that are more stringent in their flood plain management requirements. The community may at any time enact stricter requirements on its own, or pursuant to policies established by other Federal, State or Regional entities. These proposed elevations will also be used to calculate the appropriate flood insurance premium rates for new buildings and their contents and for the second layer of insurance on existing buildings and their contents.
 The proposed base (100-year) flood elevations for selected locations are:
